² Where the context requires, each term used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed to such term in the Bar Date Order, available at <http://dm.epiq11.com/Essar> for no cost.

Time as the last date and time by which creditors of the Debtors (other than “governmental units” as defined in section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code) must file proofs of claim based on claims against the Debtors (the “General Bar Date”). The Bar Date Order also establishes the deadline by which governmental units (as defined in section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code) must file proofs of claim (the “Government Bar Date” and together with the General Bar Date, the “Bar Dates”). The Government Bar Date is January 4, 2017, at 4:00 p.m. Prevailing Pacific Time. Set forth below is a summary of the Bar Date Order. The Bar Date Order in its entirety is available at <http://dm.epiq11.com/Essar>.

The Bar Date Order, the Bar Dates, and the procedures set forth below for the filing of Proofs of Claim apply to all Claims (as defined in Section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code) against the Debtors (other than those set forth below as being specifically excluded) that arose prior to the Petition Date, the date on which the Debtors commenced these Chapter 11 Cases.

If you have any questions with respect to this Notice, please feel free to contact the Debtors’ Court-approved Claims and Noticing Agent, Epiq Bankruptcy Solutions, LLC (the “Claims Agent”) at (646) 282-2500.

A CLAIMANT SHOULD CONSULT THEIR OWN ATTORNEY IF THE CLAIMANT HAS ANY QUESTIONS ABOUT THEIR CLAIM, INCLUDING WHETHER SUCH CLAIMANT SHOULD FILE A PROOF OF CLAIM.

1. WHO MUST FILE A PROOF OF CLAIM

You MUST file a Proof of Claim to share in the Debtors’ estates if you have a Claim that arose prior to July 8, 2016, and it is not one of the types of Claims described in Section 2 below. Acts or omissions of the Debtors that arose before July 8, 2016 may give rise to Claims against the Debtors that must be filed by the Bar Dates notwithstanding that such Claims may not have matured or become fixed or liquidated prior to July 8, 2016. Pursuant to section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code and as used herein, the term “Claim” means: (a) a right to payment, whether or not such right is reduced to judgment, liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, legal, equitable, secured, or unsecured; or (b) a right to an equitable remedy for breach of performance if such breach gives rise to a right to payment, whether or not such right to an equitable remedy is reduced to judgment, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, secured, or unsecured.

2. WHO NEED NOT FILE A PROOF OF CLAIM

You need not file a Proof of Claim if:

(1) Your Claim is listed on the Schedules and (i) is not described as “disputed,” “contingent,” or “unliquidated,” (ii) you do not dispute the amount, nature, or priority of the claim set forth in the Schedule, and (iii) you do not dispute that your claim is an obligation of the specific Debtor which has listed the claim on its Schedules;

(2) Your Claim has been paid in full by the Debtors;

(3) You hold a Claim that has been allowed by an order of this Court entered on or before the Bar Dates;

(5) You hold a Claim for which you have already properly filed a Proof of Claim with the Clerk of the Court or the Claims Agent against the Debtors utilizing a claim form which substantially conforms to the form attached to this Notice (the “Proof of Claim Form”);

(6) You hold a contingent or unliquidated Claim against the Debtors for indemnification, contribution or subrogation or for reimbursement related to the forgoing and you are a director, officer, or employee of the Debtors as of the Petition Date, unless you resign or leave the employ of the Debtors following the Petition Date, then you must file a Proof of Claim by the later of (a) the General Bar Date and (b) twenty-one (21) days following such resignation or termination of employment;

(7) You are an employee of the Debtors as of the Petition Date and have claims for accrued but unpaid wages, salaries, commissions, and/or other benefits as described in the Employee Motion; provided, however, that (i) former employees for which the Debtors have terminated the employment of such employees prior to the Petition Date and that assert any claims against the Debtors; and (ii) current employees who assert claims against the Debtors other than for the Debtors’ obligations authorized to be paid pursuant to the Employee Motion shall be required to file a proof of claim against the Debtors’ estates on or before the General Bar Date;

(9) You are one of the prepetition secured parties with respect to the Secured Debt (as defined in the First Day Declaration); or

(10) You are Debtor having a claim against another Debtor.

Subject to certain exceptions set forth in the Bar Date Order, any other person or entity (including, without limitation, each individual, partnership, joint venture, corporation, estate, trust or governmental unit) must file a Proof of Claim, as described herein, before the General Bar Date or Government Bar Date, as applicable.

YOU SHOULD NOT FILE A PROOF OF CLAIM IF YOU DO NOT HAVE A CLAIM AGAINST THE DEBTORS. THE FACT THAT YOU HAVE RECEIVED THIS NOTICE DOES NOT MEAN THAT YOU HAVE A CLAIM OR THAT THE DEBTORS OR THE COURT BELIEVES THAT YOU HAVE A CLAIM.

3. EQUITY INTEREST HOLDERS

Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3003(b)(2), it is not necessary for an equity security holder to file a proof of interest based solely upon such interest; provided, however, that if an equity holder asserts any rights as a creditor holding a claim against any of the Debtors, including any claim arising out of or relating to the ownership, sale, issuance or purchase of an equity interest in any of the Debtors, a proof of claim is required to be filed on or before the applicable Bar Date.

4. EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES

Any person or entity that holds a Claim arising from the rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease must file a Proof of Claim based on such rejection by the later of (i) the applicable Bar Date and (ii) the first business day that is at least twenty-four (24) calendar days after the mailing of (a) a notice of an order approving the rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease or (b) notice of rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease in accordance with any procedural order entered by the Court.

5. GOVERNMENTAL UNITS

The last date and time by which Proofs of Claim of governmental units (as defined in section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code) must be filed or be forever barred is January 4, 2017 at 4:00 p.m. Prevailing Pacific Time.

6. WHEN AND WHERE TO FILE

7. WHAT TO FILE

If you file a Proof of Claim, your filed Proof of Claim must: (i) be written in the English language; (ii) be denominated in lawful currency of the United States; (iii) conform substantially with the Proof of Claim Form; (iv) state that it is filed against the Debtors; (v) set forth with specificity the legal and factual basis for the alleged claim; (vi) include supporting documentation or an explanation as to why documentation is not available; and (vii) be signed by the claimant or, if the claimant is not an individual, by an authorized agent of the claimant. If you have received this Notice by mail and a vendor number is indicated above your name, please also include the vendor number next to your name on the Proof of Claim Form.

YOU SHOULD ATTACH TO YOUR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM COPIES OF ANY WRITINGS OR OTHER DOCUMENTS UPON WHICH YOUR CLAIM IS BASED. IF SUCH DOCUMENTS ARE VOLUMINOUS, YOU SHOULD ATTACH A SUMMARY.

8. CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO FILE A PROOF OF CLAIM BY THE GENERAL BAR DATE

Except with respect to Claims of a type described in Section 2 above, any creditor who fails to file a Proof of Claim on or before the General Bar Date for any Claim such creditor holds against the Debtors, will be forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from asserting such Claim (and from filing a Proof of Claim with respect to such Claim) against the Debtors and their estates, and its property will be forever discharged from any and all indebtedness or liability with respect to such Claim, and the holder of such Claim shall not be permitted to vote on any chapter 11 plan or participate in any distribution in the Debtors' Bankruptcy Cases on account of such Claim or to receive further notice regarding such Claim or with respect to the Debtors' Bankruptcy Cases. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each and every creditor of the Debtors, regardless of whether it files a Proof of Claim, and regardless of whether it was required to file a Proof of Claim to participate in any distribution in the Debtors' Bankruptcy Cases, shall be bound by the terms of any chapter 11 plan confirmed in such Bankruptcy Cases.

9. THE DEBTORS' SCHEDULES AND ACCESS THERETO

On August 15, 2016, the Debtors filed the schedules of assets and liabilities (the "Schedules"). You may be listed as the holder of a Claim against the Debtors in the Schedules. Copies of the Schedules may be examined by interested parties on (i) the Court's electronic docket for the Debtors' Bankruptcy Cases at <https://ecf.deb.uscourts.gov> (a PACER login and password are required to access and can be obtained through the PACER Service Center at www.pacer.psc.uscourts.gov) or (ii) for no cost at <http://dm.epiq11.com/Essar>.

This notice is only a summary of the Bar Date Order. All creditors and other parties in interest are referred to the text of the Bar Date Order itself and to the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules and Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and Procedure of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware for additional information regarding the filing and treatment of Proofs of Claim and should consult with their own legal advisors. The fact that you have received this notice does not mean that you have a claim or that the Debtors or the Bankruptcy Court believe that you have a claim.

Understand the terms used in this form

Administrative expense: Generally, an expense that arises after a bankruptcy case is filed in connection with operating, liquidating, or distributing the bankruptcy estate. 11 U.S.C. § 503.

Claim: A creditor’s right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. Use the debtor’s name and case number as shown in the bankruptcy notice you received. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (13).

Evidence of perfection: Evidence of perfection of a security interest may include documents showing that a security interest has been filed or recorded, such as a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, or financing statement.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual’s tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor’s name, and only the year of any person’s date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Priority claim: A claim within a category of unsecured claims that is entitled to priority under 11 U.S.C. §507(a). These claims are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims are paid. Common priority unsecured claims include alimony, child support, taxes, and certain unpaid wages.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the amount of debt the debtor owed to a creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Secured claim under 11 U.S.C. §506(a): A claim backed by a lien on particular property of the debtor. A claim is secured to the extent that a creditor has the right to be paid from the property before other creditors are paid. The amount of a secured claim usually cannot be more than the value of the particular property on which the creditor has a lien. Any amount owed to a creditor that is more than the value of the property normally may be an unsecured claim. But exceptions exist; for example, see 11 U.S.C. § 1322(b) and the final sentence of 1325(a).

Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment may be a lien.

Setoff: Occurs when a creditor pays itself with money belonging to the debtor that it is holding, or by canceling a debt it owes to the debtor.

Uniform claim identifier: An optional 24-character identifier that some creditors use to facilitate electronic payment.

Unsecured claim: A claim that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be unsecured in part to the extent that the amount of the claim is more than the value of the property on which a creditor has a lien.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.
