Dear Claimant:

You are receiving this package because you filed a proof of claim in the Penn Virginia chapter 11 cases on account of payments in connection with royalty interests and/or working interests that you hold.

Amounts due in connection with royalty interests and working interests were paid in the ordinary course of business during the chapter 11 cases, as directed by the court [Docket No. 249]. As a result of those payments, our records indicate that there are no outstanding prepetition amounts (amounts that accrued prior to May 12, 2016) due. Furthermore, section 4.21 of the confirmed Plan of Reorganization [Docket No. 568] provides that royalty interests and working interests are fully preserved and remain in full force and effect.

Therefore, because our records indicate that you have received (and will continue to receive) payments on account of your valid royalty interests and/or working interests, as applicable, the Reorganized Debtors have objected to the proof of claim you filed on the basis that there is no outstanding liability that must be paid out of the Reorganized Debtors' estates.

If you believe funds owed to you are being held in suspense by Penn Virginia or if you have any questions about this letter or the objection enclosed in this package, please contact us at our dedicated telephone hotline at (844) 804-4367, free of charge, or email us at PVAcclaims@epiqsystems.com.

As indicated in the enclosed Notice, if you have a response, you must file it with the Bankruptcy Court on or before October 10, 2016. You must also send a copy of any such response to the debtors' counsel listed on the Notice so that it is actually received by October 10, 2016 at 4:00 PM (ET).

Sincerely,

/s/ Jeremy S. Williams

Dear Claimant,

You are receiving this package because you filed a proof of claim in the Penn Virginia chapter 11 cases on account of payments in connection with royalty interests and/or working interests that you hold.

Our records indicate that the property associated with your royalty interests and/or working interests was sold. You should have received notice of this sale at the time the sale transaction took place. Because the property associated with your royalty interests and/or working interests was sold, the Reorganized Debtors are no longer obligated to make payments in connection with those royalty interests and/or working interests. Therefore, the Reorganized Debtors have objected to the proof of claim you filed on the basis that there is no outstanding liability that must be paid out of the Reorganized Debtors' estates.

If you never received notice of the sale of the property associated with your royalty interests and/or working interests, if you believe you have received this package in error, or if you have any questions about this letter or the objection enclosed in this package, please call us at our dedicated telephone hotline at (844) 804-4367, free of charge, or email us at PVAclaims@epiqsystems.com.

As indicated in the enclosed Notice, if you have a response, you must file it with the Bankruptcy Court on or before October 10, 2016. You must also send a copy of any such response to the debtors' counsel listed on the Notice so that it is actually received by October 10, 2016 at 4:00 PM (ET).

Sincerely,

/s/ Jeremy S. Williams
