Dear Mr. Gibson,

You filed Proof of Claim No. 24594 in the Ditech bankruptcy on November 5, 2019. The claim was related to an escrow surplus check in the amount of $2,417.24 which had expired before you had the opportunity to cash it. You noted that Ditech informed you that you needed to file a Proof of Claim in order to have the funds reissued.

An objection was filed to your claim on January 17, 2020 because there was insufficient documentation in order to sustain a legal claim. In February 2020, you filed a response to the objection, requesting to appear telephonically at the hearing on February 25, 2020. Accordingly, you were granted an adjournment (continuance) of the hearing.

On or around April 2020, our office reached out to you and you confirmed that the check had been reissued and cashed. At that time, you indicated your willingness to withdraw the claim.

Because you filed a response to the objection, your claim is considered contested at this time. This means that if the claim is not withdrawn, the bankruptcy court will eventually set a hearing date regarding your claim.

Attached is a Withdrawal of Claim form for your convenience. Please sign and date and return in the enclosed, prepaid envelope.

If you have any questions, please contact us at info@ditech-settlement.com, or by telephone at (877) 783-6297.

With Best Regards,

Joshana McVeigh
