(B) Objections.

(a) An objection (the “Objection”) to a Monthly Fee Statement must be filed and served on the Notice Parties not later than fourteen (14) days after service of the Monthly Fee Statement (the “Objection Deadline”). The Objection must set forth the nature of the objection and the amount of fees and expenses at issue. (d) The service of an Objection to a Monthly Fee Statement shall not prejudice the objecting party's right to object to any fee application made to the Court in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code on any ground whether raised in the objection or not. The decision by any party not to object to a Monthly Fee Application shall not be a waiver of any kind or prejudice that party's right to object to any fee application subsequently made to the Court in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code and applicable rules.

(D) Interim Application.

(a) Beginning with the period from the Petition Date to November 30, 2021, and continuing at four-month intervals or at such other intervals convenient to the Court (the "Interim Fee Period"), each Professional seeking approval for its interim fee application shall file with the Court and serve on the Notice Parties an interim application for allowance of compensation and reimbursement of expenses, pursuant to section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 2016 and D.N.J. (d) The service of an Objection to a Monthly Fee Statement shall not prejudice the objecting party's right to object to any Interim Fee Application made to the Court in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code on any ground whether raised in the objection or not. Furthermore, the decision by any party not to object to a Monthly Fee Application shall not be a waiver of any kind or prejudice that party's right to object to any Interim Fee Application subsequently made to the Court in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code and applicable rules.

(e) The pendency of a fee application or a Court order that payment of compensation or reimbursement of expenses is improper as to a particular Monthly Fee Statement shall not disqualify a Professional from the further payment of compensation or reimbursement of expenses as set forth above, unless otherwise ordered by the Court. The pendency of an Objection to payment of compensation or reimbursement of expenses will not disqualify a Professional from the future payment of compensation or reimbursement of expenses, unless the Court orders otherwise.

(f) Neither (i) the payment of or the failure to pay in whole or in part monthly interim compensation and reimbursement of expenses nor, (ii) the filing of or failure to file an Objection will bind any party in interest or the Court with respect to the allowance of interim or final applications for compensation and reimbursement of expenses for the Professionals.
