CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Honorable Judge Lane,

Your Honor,

I received the attached email yesterday apparently in response to an email that I had sent to Mr. Perez the day before on October 26 voicing my concern that I had no notices from the Reorganized Debtors since June 28, 2021, and asking him if there had been any updates regarding my claims.

I was surprised to discover that apparently, today is the last day to file a response to a complex 21 page document for which I was not even supplied the exhibits, in particular Exhibit B, which Mr. Perez references stating that the Reorganized Debtors anticipates that the Bankruptcy Court will enter....” What have the Debtors been informed of regarding my claims to which I have been excluded?

My claims were initially challenged by Mr. Perez on a failure to “timely prosecute claims”. Has there been a ruling on that charge? I filed my claims in the manner prescribed by the Court and the Debtors Counsel, Mr. Perez has failed to keep me informed. The Debtors are challenging my claims but have failed to serve me the documents the Debtors are filing in response to my claims. I should not be obligated to go on a hunt for redacted and difficult to obtain documents because the Debtors fail to submit all documents challenging my claims.

I therefore must object to moving forward with briefing and hearing deadlines until I have been supplied all of the documents that I need to respond to and have had the adequate time to properly prepare a response. It appears that other claimants that were noticed were allowed 28 days to respond.

Respectfully,

Gregory R. Cordes
