The complete account number of any account the debtor has with the creditor is useful to the trustee and the creditor and may be provided if the debtor chooses to do so. List creditors holding all types of secured interests such as judgment liens, garnishments, statutory liens, mortgages, deeds of trust, and other security interests.

List creditors in alphabetical order to the extent practicable. If a joint petition is filed, state whether the husband, wife, both of them, or the marital community may be liable on each claim by placing an "H", "W", "J", or "C" in the column labeled "Husband, Wife, Joint, or Community".

If the claim is contingent, place an "X" in the column labeled "Contingent". If the claim is unliquidated, place an "X" in the column labeled "Unliquidated". If the claim is disputed, place an "X" in the column labeled "Disputed". (You may need to place an "X" in more than one of these three columns.)

3. It would be prohibitively expensive and unduly burdensome to obtain current market valuations of the Debtor’s property interests. Accordingly, unless otherwise indicated, net book values, as of the Petition Date, rather than current market values of the Debtor’s interests in property, are reflected on the Debtor’s Schedules and Statements.
4. Any failure to designate a claim on the Debtor’s Schedules as disputed, contingent or unliquidated does not constitute an admission by the Debtor that such amount is not disputed, contingent or unliquidated. The Debtor reserves all of its rights with respect to the claims listed in the Schedules and Statements, including without limitation, the right to (i) assert offsets or defenses to any claims, (ii) dispute any claim on any basis, including without limitation, as to amount, liability or classification of (iii) designate any claim as disputed, contingent or unliquidated.

6. The Debtor has sought to discover and properly classify all claims and interest in this case, and to list all claims and interests against this estate accurately and completely. However, the Debtor will review its records and other information on an on-going basis to determine whether these Schedules and Statements should be supplemented or otherwise amended. The Debtor reserves the right to file, at any time, such supplements or amendments to these Schedules and statements as it deems appropriate. These Schedules and Statements should not be considered the final word on the Debtor’s assets and liabilities as of the Petition Date, but rather the Debtor’s current compilation of such information based on its investigation to date. All parties are encouraged to inform the Debtor or its counsel should they believe any part of these Schedules and Statements to be inaccurate, incomplete or in need of supplementation in any way.
