NOTICE OF BANKRUPTCY FILING OF RANDOLPH HOSPITAL, INC.
AND IMPORTANT RIGHTS THAT YOU MAY HAVE

Dear Current or Former Patient of Randolph Hospital, Inc. d/b/a Randolph Health:

On March 6, 2020, Randolph Hospital, Inc.¹ (the “Randolph”) filed for protection under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. Randolph’s bankruptcy case is pending before the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of North Carolina at docket number 20-10247. Randolph Hospital is open and operating. If you have any questions regarding this case, please contact Epiq Corporate Restructuring, LLC at (866) 977-1059 or at <https://dm.epiq11.com/RandolphHealth>.

This letter has been approved by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court presiding over Randolph’s chapter 11 cases in order to provide you with information about the cases and certain rights that you may have. You are not being sued. This letter is to advise you of the fact that Randolph seeks to reorganize under chapter 11 and that you may hold a claim against Randolph. You do not need to respond to this notice or take any additional steps, but you may wish to consult with an attorney to understand your rights.

A copy of a Notice of Chapter 11 Case, Meeting of Creditors & Deadlines filed with the Court (the “Notice”) is enclosed. This Notice contains important information, including the names of Randolph’s attorneys, the date and time that a meeting of creditors has been scheduled, your deadline to file a proof of claim in this matter (the document you must file to assert your claim, if you have one), and the address and telephone number of the Bankruptcy Court having jurisdiction over this case. In addition, also enclosed is a copy of an order of the presiding Bankruptcy Court addressing notice requirements for current or former patients who may have claims against Randolph (the “Order”).

People and businesses with claims against a company reorganizing under chapter 11 are typically entitled to notice of events in the bankruptcy case. The Order limits the notice that will be provided to you to key events in the case, without limiting your ability to receive notice of every event. Under the terms of the Order, Randolph will provide you with service and notice of the following: (1) the time fixed for filing proofs of claim if it changes from the date in the enclosed Notice; (2) any proposed use, sale, or lease of property of the estate, other than in the ordinary course of business to the extent that such use, sale, or lease concerns all or substantially all the Debtor’s assets; (3) hearing on approval of a compromise or settlement of a controversy; (4) hearing upon the dismissal of the case, or the conversion of the case to another chapter; (5) the time fixed to accept or reject a proposed modification of a plan of reorganization; (6) the deadline to file objections on and a hearing with respect to approval of a disclosure statement; (7) the time fixed for filing ballots to vote to accept a plan of reorganization, or to file objections, and the hearing to consider confirmation of any chapter 11 plan; (8) the entry of an order confirming a Chapter 11 plan of reorganization; (9) a summary of the trustee’s final report and account, should the case be converted to one under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code; and (10) any matter that specifically relates to you.

You are also able to enter an appearance in the case and receive notice of all proceedings. You may wish to speak with an attorney. In addition, at any time, you may access filings in this case by directing your web browser to <https://pacer.psc.uscourts.gov/pscof/regWizard.jsf> to
