People wait in line for free beer while practicing social distancing at Avery Brewing Co. on Friday in Boulder. Avery Brewing is giving free cases of beer to frontline workers in the fight against the coronavirus pandemic that is currently sweeping across the nation. Jeremy Papasso, Daily Camera community is awesome and overwhelming,” Elowsky said. “It makes me emotional to have such great support.”

In response to the pandemic, Pasta Jay's has begun delivering and donating food to caregivers at Boulder Community Health's Foothills Hospital weekly. "The Boulder community knows how to support their own," Elowsky said.

Boulder companies and restaurants like Pasta Jay's providing free services for hospital workers.

Joe Osborne, marketing manager of Avery Brewing Co., said the community's eagerness to help out is a silver lining to the pandemic.

"Everyone is looking for ways to help each other," Osborne said. "We thought one thing that a lot of people could use is just a break or at least some respite at the end of their day."

The beer being provided, Stampede, was developed by the brewery with the University of Colorado

Boulder.

It features a photo of CU mascot Ralphie on the side of the can. Avery said this history was a large part of choosing the beer so that the workers can feel a sense of community solidarity.

"It couldn't be any more Boulder than Stampede," Avery said.

Avery Brewing Co. has not escaped the COVID-19 pandemic unscathed. In response to the virus, the brewery closed its restaurant and taproom on March 13, days before Colorado Gov. Jared Polis ordered a statewide closure of all in-person dining.

at tapping into the city's temporary rental and utility assistance, or TRUA, program. As with many support resources right now, Livyatan was warned of long wait times on the 2-1-1 lines last week.

"We are pretty freaked out but not totally alone," Livyatan said. "Very worried about everyone else in our position in the next few days or next month, too."

With many people across the state facing rent, mortgage and other shortfalls related to the pandemic, the Colorado Department of Local Affairs last week put out a list of resources to help alleviate the pressure. Here are those recommendations:

What can I do if I am facing eviction?

The Department of Local Affairs has been granted $3 million from the state's disaster emergency fund to boost short-term rental and mortgage assistance for low-income households, specifically those making 50% or less of their area median income.

Those funds are being distributed in two ways:

- Through local nonprofits
- Through statewide

Through statewide housing organizations and public housing authorities that already provide homes to large numbers of low-income residents

The department has created an interactive eviction resources map available at dola-online.maps.arcgis.com that directs users to the best options in their area.

For Denver, the map recommends getting in touch with the TRUA program by dialing the city's 3-1-1 line and pressing 6.

Help through the state's 2-1-1 line is also available to help direct people to the proper organization to request rental assistance.

State public safety officials have been working with sheriff's departments, mayors and others officials around the state to push for a suspension of evictions enforcement until at least April 30, according to DOLA.

What can I do if I am facing foreclosure?

The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security or CARES Act that Congress passed last month included protections for residential mortgages regardless of their delinquency status.

The act mandates that no foreclosures be processed for at least 60 days dating back to March 19 unless the property being foreclosed on is vacant or abandoned. It further orders that lenders provide up to 180 days before taking action against a borrower with another 180-day extension available at the borrower's request.

The Department of Local Affairs has worked with the American Bankers Association on recommendations it is passing on to the homeowners. The association is keeping a running list of measures being employed by specific banks online at aba.com.

What can I do if my utilities could be shut off?

The state's Department of Regulatory Agencies has been working with municipal and privately owned utility companies to track the relief they are offering to customers. Xcel and dozens of other providers have agreed to the following measures during the crisis, according to the state:

- No service cutoffs for late or missed payments
- No reconnection fees
- No fees related to late payments
- Reconnecting services for customers recently disconnected for lack of payment
- Offering a low-income payment assistance program
- Launching a medical exemption policy stopping disconnection

Beyond offering tips and resources to residents, the state has also provided recommendations for landlords and lenders, including urging them to stop evictions through at least April 30 and to waive fees for late rent for anyone who has lost income as a result of the public health crisis. Gov. Jared Polis has not issued any orders freezing eviction proceedings in the state during the crisis.

ECONOMY

◀◀ FROM 7A

Sunshine State — to re-start it.

Those targets are at best mildly informed guesses based on models that contain variables — including how many people have the virus and how effective suppression measures will prove to be. The models cannot yet give us anything close to a precise answer on the big question looming over Americans' lives and livelihoods.

To determine when to restart activity, said R. Glenn Hubbard, a former top economist under President George W. Bush, "we need more information."

Interviews with more than a dozen economists, many of whom are veterans of past presidential administrations, reveal broad consensus on the building blocks the economy needs — but does not yet have — to begin the slow process of restoring normalcy in the U.S. economy.

That includes widespread agreement that the United States desperately needs more testing for the virus in order to give policymakers the first key piece of evidence they need to determine how fast the virus is spreading and when it might be safe for people to return to work.

Policymakers will also need better data on how strained hospitals and entire regional health care systems are likely to be if the infection rate flares up and spreads.

Ideally, they would sufficiently control the rate to establish so-called contact tracing in order to track — and avoid — the spread of the virus across the country.

Once such levels of detection are established, it is possible that certain workers could begin returning to the job — for example, in areas where the chance of infection is low.

Some experts have talked about quickly bringing back workers who have contracted the virus but recovered with little

IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

In re) Chapter 11
SOUTHLAND RUSTALY COMPANY LLC,) Debtor.) Ref. Docket No. 23-01518 (KBO)
NOTICE OF ESTABLISHMENT OF BAR DATES FOR FILING PROOFS OF DEBTOR'S CLAIMS, INCLUDING SECTION 503(b)(9) CLAIMS

On January 27, 2020 (the "Petition Date"), the above-captioned debtor (the "Debtor") filed a petition commencing a chapter 11 case under title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Court"). On March 20, 2020, the Court entered an order establishing various bar dates for filing proofs of claim and requests for allowance of certain administrative expenses (the "Bar Date Order").

The General Bar Date: ALL PERSONS OR ENTITIES HOLDING CLAIMS AGAINST THE DEBTOR THAT AROSE PRIOR TO THE PETITION DATE ARE REQUIRED TO FILE PROOFS OF CLAIM BY MAY 18, 2020 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME). The General Bar Date applies to all types of claims against the Debtor that arose prior to the Petition Date, including Section 503(b)(9) Claims, secured claims, unsecured priority claims, and unsecured nonpriority claims.

The Government Bar Date: ALL GOVERNMENTAL UNITS HOLDING CLAIMS AGAINST THE DEBTOR THAT AROSE PRIOR TO THE PETITION DATE ARE REQUIRED TO FILE PROOFS OF CLAIM BY JULY 27, 2020 AT 4:00 P.M. (PREVAILING EASTERN TIME). The Government Bar Date applies to all governmental units holding claims against the Debtor that arose prior to the Petition Date, including governmental units with claims against the Debtor for unpaid taxes, whether such claims arise from prepetition tax periods or prepetition transactions in which the Debtor was a party.

The Amended Schedule Bar Date: If the Debtor amends or supplements the schedules of assets and liabilities filed in this case (the "Schedules") to modify the undisputed, noncontingent, and liquidated amount of a claim listed in the Schedules to change the nature or classification of a claim against the Debtor reflected in the Schedules, or to add a new claim to the Schedules, the affected creditor is required to file a proof of claim or amend any previously filed proof of claim in respect of the affected claim on or before the later of (i) the above-listed Bar Date applicable to such affected creditor and (ii) 21 days after the date that notice of the applicable amendment or supplement to the Schedules is served on the creditor. The later of these dates is referred to as the "Amended Schedule Bar Date."

The Rejection Bar Date: If your claim arises out of the rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code prior to the confirmation of the chapter 11 plan, you must file a proof of claim on or before the later of (i) the General Bar Date (or the Government Bar Date for governmental units) and (ii) 21 days after you are served with the order authorizing the rejection of the applicable contract or lease. The later of these dates is referred to as the "Rejection Bar Date."

Enties That Must File Proofs of Claim by the Bar Date: Unless one of the exceptions described below applies, you MUST file a proof of claim to vote on the chapter 11 plan or to share in distributions if you have a claim that arose prior to the Petition Date. Claims based on acts or omissions of the Debtor that occurred before the Petition Date must be filed prior to the applicable Bar Date, even if such claims are not now fixed, liquidated, or certain or did not mature or become fixed, liquidated, or certain before the Petition Date. Except where the Rejection Bar Date, the Government Bar Date, or the Amended Schedule Bar Date establishes a different deadline or one of the exceptions below applies, you must file proofs of claim on or before the General Bar Date if:

- your claim against the Debtor is not listed in the Debtor's Schedules or is listed in the Schedules as either one or more of: disputed, contingent, or unliquidated; or
- you believe that your claim is improperly classified in the Schedules or is listed in an incorrect amount and desire to have your claim allowed in a different classification or as an amount.

All proof of claim must be signed by the creditor or, if the creditor is not an individual, by a duly authorized agent of the creditor. The proof of claim form must be written in English and be denominated in United States currency. You should attach to your completed proof of claim any documents on which the claim is based (or, if such documents are voluminous, attach a summary) or an explanation as to why the documents are not available.

Under the Bar Date Order, the filing of a proof of claim form shall be deemed to satisfy the procedural requirements for the assertion of administrative priority claims under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code. All other administrative claims under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code must be made by separate requests for payment in accordance with section 503(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. For avoidance of doubt, Section 503(b)(9) Claims must be filed by the General Bar Date.

When and Where to File: All proofs of claim must be submitted as to be actually received by the Debtor's claims agent, Epig Corporate Restructuring, LLC ("Epig"), on or before the applicable Bar Date (i) by completing the electronic proof of claim form on Epig's website at <http://dm.epig11.com/southland/or> (in person, by first-class service, by hand delivery, or by mail at the following address: If by First-Class Mail: Southland Rustalaly Company LLC, Attn: Claims Processing, c/o Epig, 1000 North 17th Street, Suite 100, PO Box 4419, Denver, CO 80202-4419. If by Hand Delivery or Overnight Mail: Southland Rustalaly Company LLC, Attn: Claims Processing Center, c/o Epig Corporate Restructuring, LLC, 10300 SW Allen Blvd., Beaverton, OR 97005.

Proofs of claim must be collected, docketed, and maintained by Epig. If you wish to receive acknowledgement of Epig's receipt of a proof of claim, you must submit by the applicable Bar Date and concurrently with submitting your original proof of claim (a) a copy of the original proof of claim and (b) a self-addressed, postage prepaid return envelope.

Proofs of claim will be deemed filed when actually received by Epig. Proofs of claim may not be delivered by facsimile or electronic mail transmission.

The Bar Date Order further provides that the following entities, who otherwise would be subject to the General Bar Date, need not file proofs of claim in this case before the General Bar Date:

• any Prepetition RBL Secured Parties or DIP Secured Parties (each as defined in the Final Order) (i) Authorizing the Debtor to (A) Obtain Possession Financing and (B) Use Cash Collateral, (ii) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition RBL Secured Parties, (iii) Granting Liens and Superiority Claims, (iv) Modifying the Automatic Stay, and (v) Granting Related Relief (D.I. 188) (the "DIP Order") with respect to any of the Prepetition RBL Obligations or the DIP Obligations (each as defined in the DIP Order);

- any person or entity that already has filed a signed proof of claim against the Debtor with Epig or the Clerk of the Court in a form substantially similar to Official Bankruptcy Form B10;

- any person or entity whose claim is listed on the Schedules if: (i) the claim is not scheduled as any of "disputed," "contingent," or "unliquidated;" and (ii) such entity agrees with the amount, nature, classification, and priority of the claim as set forth in the Schedules;

- any holder of a claim that previously has been allowed by order of the Court;

- any holder of a claim that has been paid in full by the Debtor pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code or in accordance with an order of the Court;

- any holder of an administrative expense allowable under sections 503(b) and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code other than a Section 503(b)(9) claim; and

- any holder of an interest based on equity interests of the Debtor solely with respect to such holder's ownership interest in or possession of such equity interests; provided, however, that any such holders who wish to assert a claim against the Debtor based on transactions in the Debtor's interests, including, but not limited to, claims for damages or rescission based on the purchase or sale of such interests, must file a proof of claim on or prior to the General Bar Date; provided, further, that the Debtor reserves all rights with respect to any such claims including, inter alia, to assert that such claims are subject to subordination pursuant to section 510(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

ANY PERSON OR ENTITY THAT IS REQUIRED TO FILE A PROOF OF CLAIM BUT THAT FAILS TO DO SO BY THE APPLICABLE BAR DATE DESCRIBED IN THIS NOTICE MAY BE FOREVER BARRED, ESTOPPED, AND ENJOINED FROM THE FOLLOWING: (i) ASSERTING ANY CLAIM AGAINST THE DEBTOR THAT AROSE PRIOR TO THE PETITION DATE THAT THE ENTITY HAS THAT (a) IS IN AN AMOUNT THAT EXCEEDS THE AMOUNT, IF ANY, THAT IS IDENTIFIED IN THE SCHEDULES ON BEHALF OF SUCH ENTITY AS UNDISPUTED, NONCONTINGENT, AND LIQUIDATED, OR (b) IS OF A DIFFERENT NATURE OR A DIFFERENT CLASSIFICATION THAN ANY CLAIM IDENTIFIED IN THE SCHEDULES ON BEHALF OF SUCH PERSON OR ENTITY (ANY SUCH CLAIM UNDER SUBPARAGRAPH (a) BEING REFERRED TO IN THIS NOTICE AS AN "UNSCHEDULED CLAIM"); OR (ii) VOTING UPON, OR RECEIVING DISTRIBUTIONS UNDER, ANY PLAN OR PLANS IN THE CHAPTER 11 CASE IN RESPECT OF AN UNSCHEDULED CLAIM.

If you choose to rely on the Schedules, it is your responsibility to determine that the claim is accurately listed in the Schedules. If: (i) you agree with the amount, if any, that is identified in the Schedules on behalf of such claim as undisputed, noncontingent, and liquidated; and (ii) your claim is not of a different nature or a different classification than any claim identified in the Schedules on behalf of such person or entity, you need not file a proof of claim. Otherwise, you must file a proof of claim before the applicable Bar Date in accordance with the procedures set forth herein.

Copies of the Schedules, the Bar Date Order, and other information regarding this chapter 11 case are available for inspection free of charge on Epig's website at <http://dm.epig11.com/southland>. The Schedules and other filings in this chapter 11 case also are available for a fee at the Court's website at www.deb.uscourts.gov. A login identification and password to the Court's Public Access to Court Electronic Records ("PACER") are required to access this information and can be obtained through the PACER at www.deb.uscourts.gov. Copies of the Schedules and other documents filed in this case also may be examined between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time), Monday through Friday, at the office of the Clerk of the Court, United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware, 2400 Market Street, 3rd Floor, Wilmington, Delaware 19801.

If you require additional information regarding the filing of a proof of claim, you may contact the Debtor's notice and claims agent, Epig, by calling 866-977-0768 (Toll Free - U.S. & Canada), 503-520-4489 (Outside of the U.S. & Canada), or by emailing southland@epiglobal.com.

A HOLDER OF A POSSIBLE CLAIM AGAINST THE DEBTOR SHOULD CONSULT ITS OWN ATTORNEY REGARDING ANY MATTERS NOT COVERED BY THIS NOTICE. SUCH AS WHETHER THE HOLDER SHOULD FILE A PROOF OF CLAIM. NEITHER THE COURT NOR COUNSEL TO THE DEBTOR CAN ADVISE CREDITORS WHETHER THEY SHOULD FILE A PROOF OF CLAIM.
