DEADLINES FOR FILING CLAIMS AGAINST THE ABOVE-REFERENCED DEBTORS:

2. Pursuant to an order of the Court entered on March 8, 2023 (Docket No. 149) (the “Bar Date Order”),² the deadline for creditors to file proofs of claim against any of the Debtors is April 21, 2023 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Central Time) (the “General Bar Date”) and the deadline for Governmental Units to file proofs of claim against any of the Debtors is July 24, 2023 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Central Time) (the “Governmental Bar Date”) and, together with the General Bar Date, the “Bar Dates”). The Bar Dates apply to all claims against any of the Debtors that arose before the Petition Date, including, but not limited to, claims against the Debtors arising under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code;³ provided, however, that the Bar Dates do not apply to those claims listed in paragraph 4 below. The Bar Date Order also sets forth procedures to be used for filing proofs of claim, which are summarized in this notice for your convenience.

3. Unless you fall into one of the categories listed in paragraph 4 below, you MUST file a Proof of Claim if you have any claim against any of the Debtors that arose before the Petition Date. Acts or omissions that occurred before the Petition Date may give rise to claims subject to the Bar Dates even if the claims may not have become known or fixed or liquidated until after the Petition Date. Under Section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code and as used herein, the word “claim” means: (a) a right to payment, whether or not such right is reduced to a judgment, liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, legal, equitable, secured, unsecured, or (b) a right to an equitable breach of performance if such breach gives rise to a payment, whether or not such right to an equitable remedy is reduced to judgement, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, secured, or unsecured.

4. The Bar Date Order provides that creditors do NOT have to file proofs of claim by the Bar Dates for the types of claims listed below in this paragraph; provided however, that the Court may enter one or more separate orders at a later time requiring creditors to file proofs of claim for these types of claims and may set related deadlines:

a. Any person or entity that has already properly filed or submitted a Proof of Claim against the correct Debtor(s), but only with respect to the particular claim that was filed properly against the correct Debtor(s);

b. Any person or entity (i) whose claim is listed in the schedules of assets and liabilities (the “Schedules”) or any amendments thereto, (ii) whose claim is not described therein as “disputed” “contingent,” or “unliquidated,” and (iii) who does not dispute the amount or characterization of its claim as set forth in the Schedules (including that the claim is an obligation of the specific Debtor against which the claim is listed in the Schedules);

c. Any entity that holds a claim allowable under sections 503(b) and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code as an administrative expense (other than any claim allowable under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code), including any professionals retained by the Debtors or any other statutory committee pursuant to orders of this Court (or any member of such committee seeking reimbursement of expenses incurred in connection with carrying out the duties associated with serving on such committee) that asserts administrative claims for fees and expenses subject to the Court’s approval pursuant to sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code but, in each case, solely to the extent of such administrative claim(s);

² Capitalized terms used not otherwise defined herein have the same meanings ascribed to them in the Bar Date Order.

- d. Any party that is exempt from filing a Proof of Claim pursuant to an order of the Court in the Chapter 11 Cases;
- e. Any person or entity whose claim has been paid in full by the Debtors pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code or in accordance with an order of the Court;
- f. Any person or entity holding an equity security interest in any Debtor, with regard to an equity interest solely on account of such current ownership; provided, however, that if such holder asserts a claim other than with respect to the current ownership of such equity security interest, including a claim relating to the purchase or sale of such equity security interest, a Proof of Claim must be filed on or before the General Bar Date. For the avoidance of doubt, any person or entity holding an equity security interest in any Debtor does not need to file a Proof of Claim or Interest solely on account of such current ownership but does need to file a Proof of Claim if asserting a claim under applicable securities laws;
- g. Any Debtor asserting a claim against another Debtor; and
- h. Any person or entity whose claim against the Debtors has been allowed by an order of the Court, entered on or before the applicable Bar Date.

THE FACT THAT YOU HAVE RECEIVED THIS NOTICE DOES NOT MEAN THAT YOU HAVE A CLAIM OR THAT THE DEBTORS BELIEVE THAT YOU HAVE A CLAIM.

5. If the Debtors amend their Schedules after you receive this notice, the Debtors will give notice of that amendment to the holders of the claims that are affected by it, and those holders will be given an opportunity to file proofs of claim before a new deadline that will be specified in that future notice.

6. The Bankruptcy Code provides that Debtors may, at any time before a plan of reorganization or liquidation is confirmed by the Court, choose to reject certain executory contracts or unexpired leases. If your contract or lease is rejected, you may have a claim resulting from that rejection. The deadline to file a Proof of Claim for damages relating to the rejection of the contract or lease is the later of (a) the General Bar Date or the Governmental Bar Date, as applicable, or (b) thirty (30) days after entry of any order authorizing the rejection of the contract or lease.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOFS OF CLAIM

7. If you file a Proof of Claim, your filed Proof of Claim must (i) be signed by the claimant or if the claimant is not an individual, by an authorized agent of the claimant, (ii) be written in English, (iii) include a claim amount denominated in United States dollars, (iv) conform substantially with the Proof of Claim form provided by the Debtors or Official Bankruptcy Form No. 410, and (v) state a claim against one of the Debtors. The Debtors are enclosing a Proof of Claim form for use in the Chapter 11 Cases. Each Proof of Claim must state a claim against only one Debtor and clearly indicate the Debtor against which the claim is asserted. If your claim is scheduled by the Debtors, the form also sets forth the amount of your claim as scheduled by the Debtors, the specific Debtor against which the claim is scheduled and whether the claim is scheduled as contingent, unliquidated, or disputed. You will receive a different Proof of Claim form for each claim scheduled in your name by the Debtors. If you require additional Proof of Claim forms, you may obtain a Proof of Claim form from any bankruptcy court clerk's office, your lawyer, or by accessing the Debtors' bankruptcy administration website, at <https://dm.epiq11.com/heritagepower>.

8. Your Proof of Claim form must be filed so as to be ACTUALLY RECEIVED on or before April 21, 2023 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Central Time). Understand the terms used in this form Administrative expense: Generally, an expense that arises after a bankruptcy case is filed in connection with operating, liquidating, or distributing the bankruptcy estate. 11 U.S.C. § 503.

Claim: A creditor's right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. Use the debtor's name and case number as shown in the bankruptcy notice you received. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (13).

Evidence of perfection: Evidence of perfection of a security interest may include documents showing that a security interest has been filed or recorded, such as a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, or financing statement.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Priority claim: A claim within a category of unsecured claims that is entitled to priority under 11 U.S.C. §507(a). These claims are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims are paid. Common priority unsecured claims include alimony, child support, taxes, and certain unpaid wages.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the amount of debt the debtor owed to a creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Secured claim under 11 U.S.C. §506(a): A claim backed by a lien on particular property of the debtor. A claim is secured to the extent that a creditor has the right to be paid from the property before other creditors are paid. The amount of a secured claim usually cannot be more than the value of the particular property on which the creditor has a lien. Any amount owed to a creditor that is more than the value of the property normally may be an unsecured claim. But exceptions exist; for example, see 11 U.S.C. § 1322(b) and the final sentence of 1325(a).

Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment may be a lien.

Setoff: Occurs when a creditor pays itself with money belonging to the debtor that it is holding, or by canceling a debt it owes to the debtor.

Uniform claim identifier: An optional 24-character identifier that some creditors use to facilitate electronic payment.

Unsecured claim: A claim that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be unsecured in part to the extent that the amount of the claim is more than the value of the property on which a creditor has a lien.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.
