EXHIBIT A

Resolutions

LTL MANAGEMENT LLC

Resolutions

April 2, 2023

WHEREAS, on October 12, 2021, the former Johnson & Johnson Consumer Inc. (“Old JJCI”) implemented a corporate restructuring (the “2021 Corporate Restructuring”) to facilitate full, permanent and equitable resolution of all current and future talc claims through a reorganization under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”);

WHEREAS, (1) prior to the 2021 Corporate Restructuring, (a) effective January 1, 1979, Johnson & Johnson and Johnson & Johnson Baby Products Company (“J&J Baby Products”) entered into an Agreement for Transfer of Assets and Bill of Sale (the “1979 Agreement”), pursuant to which (i) J&J transferred to J&J Baby Products all assets and liabilities then allocated on the books or records of J&J to its baby products operating division and (ii) J&J Baby Products agreed, on behalf of itself and its successors and assigns, to forever indemnify and hold harmless J&J against all such liabilities of every kind and description, and (b) through a series of subsequent corporate transactions that occurred between 1981 and 2015, Old JJCI succeeded to J&J Baby Products’ rights and obligations under the 1979 Agreement, and (2) as a result thereof, from and after January 1, 1979, Old JJCI (including for such purpose its predecessors in interest) bore all financial responsibility for and paid (as reflected in Old JJCI’s books and records) all talc claims related to JOHNSON’S® Baby Powder;

WHEREAS, pursuant to the 2021 Corporate Restructuring, (1) Old JJCI ceased to exist and LTL Management LLC, a North Carolina limited liability company (the “Company”), and Johnson & Johnson Holdco (NA) Inc., a New Jersey corporation formerly named Johnson & Johnson Consumer Inc. (“Holdco”), were created and (2) the Company received Old JJCI’s liability for current and future talc claims and certain assets and Holdco received all other liabilities and assets of Old JJCI;

WHEREAS, as part of the 2021 Corporate Restructuring, (1) the Company, Holdco and J&J entered into the Amended and Restated Funding Agreement, dated October 12, 2021 (the “2021 Funding Agreement”), pursuant to which, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, Holdco and J&J agreed to provide, on a joint and several basis, funding to the Company for specified uses and (2) Holdco and J&J entered into the Amended and Restated Commitment and Loan Agreement, dated October 12, 2021 (the “2021 Commitment and Loan Agreement”), pursuant to which, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, Holdco and J&J agreed that (a) Holdco would be the primary obligor under the 2021 Funding Agreement, (b) upon the request of Holdco, J&J would make revolving credit loans to Holdco, with the proceeds of such loans to be used by Holdco solely to satisfy its obligations under the 2021 Funding Agreement, and (c) if Holdco failed to make any payment to the Company required by the 2021 Funding Agreement and instead J&J made such payment under the 2021 Funding Agreement, Holdco would reimburse J&J for such payment and any amount not so reimbursed by Holdco would be deemed to be financed with a loan from J&J to Holdco and Holdco’s obligation to make such reimbursement would be discharged and replaced by such loan;

WHEREAS, Old JJCI implemented the 2021 Corporate Restructuring and the Company, Holdco and J&J entered into the related 2021 Funding Agreement and 2021 Commitment and Loan Agreement with the primary purpose of facilitating a full, permanent, efficient and equitable resolution of all current and future talc claims against the Company through a chapter 11 bankruptcy case filed by the Company;

WHEREAS, on October 14, 2021, the Company filed a petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, thereby commencing a chapter 11 bankruptcy case (the “2021 Bankruptcy Case”);

WHEREAS, it is anticipated that, at any time, the 2021 Bankruptcy Case will be dismissed at the direction of the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit (the “Third Circuit”), which determined that “[b]ecause [the Company] was not in financial distress” at the time of its bankruptcy filing, “it cannot show its petition served a valid bankruptcy purpose and was filed in good faith under [Bankruptcy] Code § 1112(b)” (LTL Mgmt., LLC v. Those Parties Listed on App’x A to Compl. (In re LTL Mgmt., LLC), 58 F.4th 738, 763 (3d Cir. 2023));

WHEREAS, the Third Circuit focused in particular on the Company’s financial condition just prior to the bankruptcy filing and observed that the Company’s “most important” asset was its “rights as a payee under the [2021] Funding Agreement with J&J and [Holdco],” which “gave [the Company] direct access to J&J’s exceptionally strong balance sheet” (Id. at 749, 759);

WHEREAS, since the Third Circuit’s ruling directing dismissal of the 2021 Bankruptcy Case, attorneys for thousands of talc claimants (collectively, the “Supporting Talc Claimant Counsel”) have executed and delivered Plan Support Agreements in the form presented to the Board that support confirmation and consummation of a plan of reorganization with specified terms (collectively, the “Plan Support Agreements”);

WHEREAS, the Plan Support Agreements remain subject to the required corporate approvals of, and execution and delivery by, each of the Company, Holdco and J&J;

WHEREAS, (1) the board of managers of the Company (the “Board”) has (a) carefully reviewed the materials and other information presented by the management and the advisors of the Company regarding the Plan Support Agreements and (b) conferred with the Company’s management and advisors regarding these matters, (2) the material facts as to relationships of officers and managers of the Company with Holdco and J&J and as to each of the Plan Support Agreements have been disclosed to or are otherwise known by the Board, and at least one member of the Board currently has no relationships with Holdco or J&J, and (3) the Board has unanimously determined that the Company’s entry into each of the Plan Support Agreements promptly following the dismissal of the 2021 Bankruptcy Case is in the best interests of the Company and its stakeholders, and Holdco and J&J are willing to approve, execute and deliver each of the Plan Support Agreements;

WHEREAS, in addition, the Board has (1) carefully reviewed the materials and other information presented by the management and the advisors of the Company regarding the Company’s talc related liabilities and other relevant information, (2) thoroughly evaluated the Company’s strategic alternatives, including the possibility of another bankruptcy filing,

(3) conferred with the Company's management and advisors regarding these matters, and (4) unanimously determined that the filing of another voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code by the Company promptly following the dismissal of the 2021 Bankruptcy Case is in the best interests of the Company and its stakeholders, and Holdco and J&J continue to support the Company's fundamental goal of obtaining a full, permanent and equitable resolution of all current and future talc claims in bankruptcy;

WHEREAS, the Third Circuit's dismissal decision had the effect of defeating the primary purpose of the 2021 Funding Agreement and the 2021 Commitment and Loan Agreement; rather than facilitating a bankruptcy resolution of the Company's current and future talc claims, the funding arrangements set forth in these agreements were viewed by the Third Circuit as foreclosing such resolution; and, as a result, there is a material risk that the 2021 Funding Agreement and 2021 Commitment and Loan Agreement were rendered void or voidable by that ruling and other developments in the 2021 Bankruptcy Case that were not reasonably foreseeable by the Company, Holdco and J&J;

WHEREAS, to eliminate that risk and secure funding consistent with the plan terms specified in the Plan Support Agreements and supported by the Supporting Talc Claimant Counsel, the Company proposes, promptly following the dismissal of the 2021 Bankruptcy Case, to terminate the funding arrangements set forth in the 2021 Funding Agreement and 2021 Commitment and Loan Agreement and, in substitution therefor, enter into new agreements with Holdco and J&J, the terms of which will, among other things, (1) address the guidance provided by the Third Circuit in its dismissal opinion, (2) facilitate confirmation and consummation of a plan of reorganization for the Company containing the terms supported by thousands of talc claimants represented by the Supporting Talc Claimant Counsel who have executed and delivered the Plan Support Agreements, and (3) not adversely affect the interests of talc claimants, and Holdco and J&J have agreed to do so;

WHEREAS, more specifically, the Company proposes, promptly following the dismissal of the 2021 Bankruptcy Case, to enter into a Termination and Substitution Agreement with Holdco and J&J in the form presented to the Board (the "Termination and Substitution Agreement"), pursuant to which the 2021 Funding Agreement and the 2021 Commitment and Loan Agreement will be terminated and (2) in substitution therefor, the Company, Holdco and J&J will agree to enter into new agreements, the terms of which will, among other things, (1) address the Third Circuit's guidance, (2) facilitate confirmation and consummation of a plan of reorganization with terms supported by thousands of talc claimants represented by the Supporting Talc Claimant Counsel who have executed and delivered the Plan Support Agreements, and (3) not harm talc claimants;

WHEREAS, as contemplated by the Termination and Substitution Agreement, the Company proposes, promptly following the dismissal of the 2021 Bankruptcy Case, to enter into a new Funding Agreement with Holdco in the form attached as Exhibit A to the Termination and Substitution Agreement presented to the Board (the "New Funding Agreement"), pursuant to which, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, Holdco will provide funding to the Company both (1) when there is no proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code pending with respect to the Company and (2) during the pendency of any voluntary case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code commenced by the Company;

WHEREAS, as contemplated by the Termination and Substitution Agreement, the Company proposes, promptly following the dismissal of the 2021 Bankruptcy Case, to enter into a Support Agreement with Holdco and J&J in the form attached as Exhibit B to the Termination and Substitution Agreement presented to the Board (the “Support Agreement”), pursuant to which, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, and further subject to approval of the Support Agreement by the applicable bankruptcy court, (1) solely in connection with a voluntary case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code to be commenced by the Company and only if Holdco fails to make any payment to provide funding for one or more trusts created pursuant to a plan of reorganization for the Company that is confirmed in such case as required by the New Funding Agreement, J&J will make such payment to the Company on Holdco’s behalf, (2) Holdco will be obligated to reimburse J&J for any such payment and any amount not so reimbursed by Holdco will be deemed to be financed with a loan from J&J to Holdco thereunder, and Holdco’s obligation to make such reimbursement would be discharged and replaced by such loan, and (3) the Company will have the right to enforce the obligation of J&J; and

WHEREAS, (1) the Board has (a) carefully reviewed the materials and other information presented by the management and the advisors of the Company regarding the 2021 Funding Agreement, the 2021 Commitment and Loan Agreement, the Termination and Substitution Agreement, the New Funding Agreement and the Support Agreement and (b) conferred with the Company’s management and advisors regarding these matters, (2) the material facts as to relationships of officers and managers of the Company with Holdco and J&J and as to each of the Termination and Substitution Agreement, the New Funding Agreement and the Support Agreement have been disclosed to or are otherwise known by the Board, and at least one member of the Board currently has no relationships with Holdco or J&J, and (3) the Board has unanimously determined that the Company’s entry into each of the Termination and Substitution Agreement, the New Funding Agreement and the Support Agreement promptly following the dismissal of the 2021 Bankruptcy Case is in the best interests of the Company and its stakeholders, and Holdco and J&J are willing to enter into each of the Termination and Substitution Agreement, the New Funding Agreement and the Support Agreement with the Company.

PROPOSED ATTORNEYS FOR DEBTOR

In re:

LTL MANAGEMENT LLC,¹

Debtor.

Chapter 11

Case No.: 23-____ (____)

Judge: _____

MASTER CREDITORS LIST

LTL Management LLC, as debtor in the above-captioned chapter 11 case (the “Debtor”), filed a petition in this Court on the date hereof for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Voluntary Petition”). In accordance with Rule 1007(a) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the Debtor filed concurrently herewith a matrix of the names and addresses of creditors, potential creditors and other parties in interest (the “Master Creditors List”). The Master Creditors List has been prepared from the books and records of the Debtor or its predecessor, and contains only those parties whose names and addresses were maintained in the databases of the Debtor or its predecessor or were otherwise readily ascertainable by the Debtor prior to the commencement of this chapter 11 case. The Debtor will update the Master Creditors List as more information becomes available.

Contemporaneously with the filing of the Voluntary Petition, the Debtor filed a motion (the "Motion") requesting, among other things, authority to serve all notices, mailings or other documents required to be provided to creditors who are claimants in talc-related lawsuits or other proceedings involving the Debtor, or who have similar claims asserted through counsel (collectively, the "Talc Claimants"), on the Talc Claimants in care of their counsel at such counsel's address in lieu of service on the individual Talc Claimants at their personal addresses. Accordingly, the Master Creditors List includes the addresses of counsel for each of the Talc Claimants rather than the addresses of each individual Talc Claimant.

Certain of the creditors listed on the Master Creditors List may not hold outstanding claims against the Debtor and therefore may not be creditors in the Debtor's bankruptcy case. By filing the Master Creditors List, the Debtor is not acknowledging that any listed party is a creditor, nor is it waiving or otherwise affecting its right to object to the extent, validity or enforceability of the claims, if any, held or asserted by the parties listed on the Master Creditors List.
