The Hearing and Response Deadline may be reset on a date agreed upon (i) between the Parties and the Bankruptcy Court, or (ii) between either Party and the Bankruptcy Court with no less than twenty-one (21) days’ notice to the other Party of the Response Deadline and no less than seven (7) days from the Response Deadline to the date of the Hearing, as rescheduled.

EXHIBIT A

On or around December 20, 2021, I timely filed a Charge of Discrimination with the Missouri Commission on Human Rights (MCHR) and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) pertaining to religious discrimination and retaliation.

On or around June 21, 2022, I timely filed an Amended Charge of Discrimination with the MCHR and EEOC. It is Charge No. E-12/21-53566.

On or around October 9, 2022, I timely filed a lawsuit pertaining to the aforementioned Charge in St. Charles, County Missouri Circuit Court. The lawsuit was removed by Respondent to the District Court, E.D. of Missouri.

On or around November 18, 2022, I filed an Amended Complaint. The E.D. Mo Case No. is 4:22-CV-01203-JAR.

At some point prior to February 16, 2023, Respondent posted a job opening for Regional Sales Manager (St. Louis, Mo). This is the position I previously held with Respondent prior to my unlawful termination. This is a position for which I am uniquely qualified, and the exact position in which I had considerable experience prior to an unlawful termination based on my religion and retaliation.

On February 16, 2023, I applied for the Regional Sales Manager position. Notwithstanding my superior qualifications, experience, and proven results, because of my Religion (Christianity) and in retaliation for my engaging in protected activity, including, but not limited to, filing prior Charges of Discrimination and filing a lawsuit against Respondent, I was not hired for the position and in fact was never even contacted after submitting my application.

Respondent's unlawful failure to hire me is a new, independent adverse employment action, requiring a new Charge of Discrimination.

NOTICE OF CHARGE OF DISCRIMINATION in Jurisdiction where a FEP Agency will initially process
(See the enclosed for additional information)

THIS IS NOTICE THAT A CHARGE OF EMPLOYMENT DISCRIMINATION UNDER Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VII)

HAS BEEN RECEIVED BY

The EEOC and sent for initial processing to Missouri Commission On Human Rights or Missouri Commission On Human Rights and sent to the EEOC for dual filing.

While EEOC has jurisdiction (upon expiration of any deferral requirement if this is a Title VII, ADA or GINA charge) to investigate this charge, EEOC may suspend its investigation and await the issuance of the Agency's final findings and orders. These findings and orders will be given weight by EEOC in making its own determination as to whether reasonable cause exists to believe that discrimination has occurred.

You are therefore encouraged to cooperate fully with the Agency. All facts and evidence provided by you to the Agency will be considered by EEOC when it reviews the Agency's final findings and orders. In many cases EEOC will take no further action, thereby avoiding the necessity of an investigation by both the Agency and EEOC. This likelihood is increased by your active cooperation with the Agency.

As a party to the charge, you may request that EEOC review the final findings and orders of the above-named Agency.

For such a request to be honored, you must notify EEOC in writing within 15 days of your receipt of the Agency's final decision and order. If the Agency terminates its proceedings without issuing a final finding and order, you will be contacted further by EEOC. Regardless of whether the Agency or EEOC processes the charge, the Recordkeeping and Non-Retaliation provisions of the statutes as explained in the enclosed information sheet apply.

For further correspondence on this matter, please use the charge number(s) shown above.

INFORMATION ON CHARGES OF DISCRIMINATION

EEOC RULES AND REGULATIONS

Section 1601.15 of EEOC's regulations provides that persons or organizations charged with employment discrimination may submit a statement of position or evidence regarding the issues covered by this charge.

EEOC's recordkeeping and reporting requirements are found at Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations (29 CFR): 29 CFR Part 1602 (see particularly Sec. 1602.14 below) for Title VII and the ADA; 29 CFR Part 1620 for the EPA; and 29 CFR Part 1627, for the ADEA. These regulations generally require respondents to preserve payroll and personnel records relevant to a charge of discrimination until disposition of the charge or litigation relating to the charge. (For ADEA charges, this notice is the written requirement described in Part 1627, Sec. 1627.3(b)(3), .4(a)(2) or .5(c), for respondents to preserve records relevant to the charge – the records to be retained, and for how long, are as described in Sec. 1602.14, as set out below). Parts 1602, 1620 and 1627 also prescribe record retention periods – generally, three years for basic payroll records and one year for personnel records. Questions about retention periods and the types of records to be retained should be resolved by referring to the regulations.

Section 1602.14 Preservation of records made or kept. Where a charge... has been filed, or an action brought by the Commission or the Attorney General, against an employer under Title VII or the ADA, the respondent ... shall preserve all personnel records relevant to the charge or the action until final disposition of the charge or action. The term personnel records relevant to the charge, for example, would include personnel or employment records relating to the aggrieved person and to all other aggrieved employees holding positions similar to that held or sought by the aggrieved person and application forms or test papers completed by an unsuccessful applicant and by all other candidates or the same position as that for which the aggrieved person applied and was rejected. The date of final disposition of the charge or the action means the date of expiration of the statutory period within which the aggrieved person may bring [a lawsuit] or, where an action is brought against an employer either by the aggrieved person, the Commission, or the Attorney General, the date on which such litigation is terminated.

NOTICE OF NON-RETALIATION REQUIREMENTS

Section 704(a) of Title VII, Section 207(f) of GINA, Section 4(d) of the ADEA, and Section 503(a) of the ADA provide that it is an unlawful employment practice for an employer to discriminate against present or former employees or job applicants, for an employment agency to discriminate against any individual, or for a union to discriminate against its members or applicants for membership, because they have opposed any practice made an unlawful employment practice by the statutes, or because they have made a charge, testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under the statutes. The Equal Pay Act contains similar provisions. Additionally, Section 503(b) of the ADA prohibits coercion, intimidation, threats, or interference with anyone because they have exercised or enjoyed or aided or encouraged others in their exercise or enjoyment, of rights under the Act.

Persons filing charges of discrimination are advised of these Non-Retaliation Requirements and are instructed to notify EEOC if any attempt at retaliation is made. Please note that the Civil Rights Act of 1991 provides substantial additional monetary provisions to remedy instances of retaliation or other discrimination, including, for example, to remedy the emotional harm caused by on-the-job harassment.

NOTICE REGARDING REPRESENTATION BY ATTORNEYS

Although you do not have to be represented by an attorney while we handle this charge, you have a right, and may wish to retain an attorney to represent you. If you do retain an attorney, please give us your attorney's name, address and phone number, and ask your attorney to write us confirming such representation.

MISSOURI COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS
MISSOURI DEPARTMENT OF LABOR & INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS
COMPLAINT PROCESS

THE INVESTIGATION

- The person who files the complaint is called the Complainant. The organization or individual against whom the complaint is filed is called the Respondent. When a complaint of employment discrimination is filed with the Missouri Commission on Human Rights (MCHR), it is also automatically filed with the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) if the employer has 15 or more employees (or 20 or more employees if based on age). When a complaint of housing discrimination is filed with MCHR, it is also automatically filed with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.
- When a complaint is filed, MCHR conducts an impartial investigation to determine if the Missouri Human Rights Act was violated. MCHR does not choose sides or represent either the Complainant or the Respondent. Instead, MCHR looks for information that will show whether or not a person's protected category, such as race, disability, gender, etc., was a contributing factor in the alleged discriminatory act. MCHR is a neutral fact-finder.
- Please cooperate fully and promptly in this investigation because that speeds up the process. Keep us informed of any changes of address, telephone number or e-mail address. If you have an attorney, have him or her supply MCHR with a letter indicating he or she represents you. Also, reply promptly to requests for documents, names of witnesses and any other things MCHR might require. The best way for us to gather the facts is if you assist us.
- When the investigation has been completed, the Executive Director makes the final determination and notifies both parties in writing.
- If the Executive Director finds there was no violation of the statute, then the case will be closed and a notice of right to sue issued to the Complainant. Such a notice allows the Complainant to file suit in court against the Respondent(s) named in the complaint. Due to a change in the statute, such notices of right to sue will only be issued regarding alleged discrimination that occurred prior to August 28, 2017.
- If the Executive Director finds no violation in an employment discrimination complaint that has also been filed with EEOC, which will have a case number beginning with an "E," then the Complainant may ask the EEOC to review that determination. The Complainant must make this request in writing to EEOC within fifteen (15) days of receiving the Executive Director's determination.
- If the Executive Director determines the statute was violated, then MCHR will attempt to conciliate (settle) the case. If the case does not settle, MCHR can decide to hold a public hearing to adjudicate the complaint.
- If MCHR has not completed its processing of a complaint, then the Complainant may ask MCHR for a notice of right to sue. When issuing a notice of right to sue, MCHR terminates its investigation and closes its file. A COMPLAINANT MUST FILE SUIT WITHIN TWO (2) YEARS OF THE ALLEGED DISCRIMINATORY ACT AND WITHIN NINETY (90) DAYS OF THE ISSUANCE OF THE NOTICE OR THE RIGHT TO SUE WILL LAPSE.

SETTLEMENT

- At any time in the complaint process, the Complainant and the Respondent may negotiate a settlement to resolve the complaint. MCHR encourages the parties to consider no-fault, compromise settlements.

RETALIATION

- It is illegal to take action against people because they complained of discrimination, whether they complained formally or informally, internally or externally, alleging discrimination against themselves or others. It is also illegal to retaliate against witnesses or anyone who has testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in MCHR's processing of the complaint.

RECORD KEEPING

- Respondents are required to keep all of the records the investigation may need. Records made by the employer regarding the Complainant and other similarly situated persons are to be kept for one full year, but if a complaint is filed, then these records must be kept until the complaint is fully resolved. Records may be important even if they are about the Complainant's coworkers or those who sought a job Complainant sought.

COMPLAINANT OR RESPONDENT ATTORNEYS

- The Complainant and the Respondent have the right to have an attorney during the administrative process, but it is not a requirement at the investigation stage. If the Complainant or Respondent hires an attorney, then the attorney should send MCHR a letter confirming the representation. All subsequent correspondence will then be sent directly to the attorney. Incorporated Respondents at public hearing are required to have an attorney.

REMEDIES FOR DISCRIMINATION

- The Missouri Human Rights Act provides that remedies may be ordered when MCHR finds AFTER A PUBLIC HEARING that a Respondent has engaged in an unlawful discriminatory practice. Such remedies include, BUT ARE NOT LIMITED TO, payment of back pay, hiring, reinstatement or promotion, the extension of full, equal and un-segregated public accommodations, and payment of actual damages, including compensation for pain, suffering and deprivation of civil rights. The Complainant has an obligation under the law to mitigate the damages by continuing to seek work during any periods of unemployment.

QUESTIONS?

- The MCHR staff is here to assist both parties while the complaint is in our process. Do not hesitate to seek clarification on any part of the complaint process. Some of the issues we deal with are complex, and you might want additional information. Copies of the Missouri Human Rights Act and MCHR's Rules and Regulations are available free of charge from our web site at www.labor.mo.gov/discrimination.
