listed on Exhibit 1 or such other date as the Debtors and the applicable Rejection Counterparty agree; provided, however, that the Rejection Date for a rejection of a lease of non-residential real property, if any, shall not occur until the later of (i) the Rejection Date set forth in the Rejection Notice and (ii) the date the Debtors relinquish control of the premises by notifying the affected landlord in writing of the Debtors' surrender of the premises and (A) turning over keys, key codes, and security codes, if any, to the affected landlord or (B) notifying the affected landlord in writing that the keys, key codes, and security codes, if any, are not available, but the landlord may rekey the leased premises.

2. The Debtors are authorized but not directed, at any time on or before the applicable Rejection Date, to remove or abandon any of the Debtors' personal property that may be located on the Debtors' leased premises that are subject to a rejected Contract, including but not limited to store signage or furniture, fixtures and equipment; provided, however, that (i) nothing shall modify any requirement under applicable law with respect to the removal of any hazardous materials as defined under applicable law from any of the Debtors' leased premises and (ii) to the extent the Debtors seek to abandon personal property that contains "personally identifiable information," as that term is defined in section 101(41A) of the Bankruptcy Code (the "PII"), the Debtors will use commercially reasonable efforts to remove the PII from such personal property before abandonment. Landlords may, in their sole discretion and without further notice or order of this Court, utilize and/or dispose of such property without notice or liability to the Debtors or third parties and, to the extent applicable, the automatic stay is modified to allow such disposition. respect to such disposition of the abandoned property are reserved, as are all parties' rights to object to such claims.

3. Claims arising out of the rejection of Contracts, if any, must be filed in accordance with any confirmed plan of reorganization or on or before the later of (i) the deadline for filing proofs of claim established in this chapter 11 case, if any, and (ii) 30 days after the later of (A) the date of entry of this Order, and (B) the Rejection Date. If no proof of claim is timely filed, such claimant shall be forever barred from asserting a claim for damages arising from the rejection and from participating in any distributions on such a claim that may be made in connection with these chapter 11 cases.

4. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Order and the rejection without further order from this Court.

5. This Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Order.
