INSTRUCTIONS

The filing of a bankruptcy case creates an “estate” under the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court which consists of all of the property of the debtor, wherever that property is located. Because the bankruptcy estate is so extensive and the jurisdiction of the court so broad, there may be lawsuits over the property or property rights of the estate. There also may be lawsuits concerning the debtor’s discharge. If such a lawsuit is filed in a bankruptcy court, it is called an adversary proceeding.

A party filing an adversary proceeding must also must complete and file Form 1040, the Adversary Proceeding Cover Sheet, unless the party files the adversary proceeding electronically through the court’s Case Management/Electronic Case Filing system (CM/ECF). (CM/ECF captures the information on Form 1040 as part of the filing process.) When completed, the cover sheet summarizes basic information on the adversary proceeding. The clerk of court needs the information to process the adversary proceeding and prepare required statistical reports on court activity.

The cover sheet and the information contained on it do not replace or supplement the filing and service of pleadings or other papers as required by law, the Bankruptcy Rules, or the local rules of court. The cover sheet, which is largely self-explanatory, must be completed by the plaintiff’s attorney (or by the plaintiff if the plaintiff is not represented by an attorney). A separate cover sheet must be submitted to the clerk for each complaint filed.

Plaintiffs and Defendants. Give the names of the plaintiffs and defendants exactly as they appear on the complaint.

Attorneys. Give the names and addresses of the attorneys, if known.

Party. Check the most appropriate box in the first column for the plaintiffs and the second column for the defendants.

Demand. Enter the dollar amount being demanded in the complaint.

Signature. This cover sheet must be signed by the attorney of record in the box on the second page of the form. If the plaintiff is represented by a law firm, a member of the firm must sign. If the plaintiff is pro se, that is, not represented by an attorney, the plaintiff must sign.

No Complaints To Report

Please note that a complaint is defined as "a communication alleging misconduct by a State Bar member sufficient to warrant an investigation that may result in discipline of the member if allegations are proved." (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 5.4(13) .) Therefore, allegations closed with the determination that the matter does not warrant investigation or allegations pending review to determine if they warrant investigation, are not included in Complaint History Reports.

We are unable to provide copies of the actual complaint(s) as such communications to the State Bar of California are privileged pursuant to California Business and Professions Code, section 6094(a).

This report identifies complaints and allegations received by the State Bar and not findings by the State Bar Court. Therefore, even where this report indicates the disposition of "Discipline," the report does not identify the findings supporting that discipline, which may differ substantially from the allegations received by the State Bar. Please consult the specific discipline documents to learn what findings of misconduct were made by the court. In most cases, such documents may be found on the public profile page for the attorney under Attorney Search at www.calbar.ca.gov.
