OBJECTION OF CREDITOR ILAN ALON, PhD, TO DEBTORS' MOTION TO APPROVE DIP FINANCING [DOCKET NO. 16]

Ilan Alon, PhD ("Objecting Creditor"), a pro se creditor in the above-captioned jointly administered cases, respectfully submits this objection to the Debtors' Emergency Motion for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Postpetition Secured Financing, (II) Granting Liens and providing Superpriority Administrative Expense Claims, (III) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (IV) Scheduling a Final Hearing, and (V) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 16] and states as follows:

1. Identity of Objecting Creditor.

I am a creditor holding investments in multiple Linqto-related Special Purpose Vehicles ("SPVs"), including but not limited to Circle, Ripple, and other portfolio companies. My total claim in these proceedings is approximately $188,000, as set forth in my filed Proof of Claim.

2. Basis of Objection.

The DIP financing proposal seeks to pledge or encumber assets in a manner that materially threatens the recovery of equity holders in Linqto SPVs.

Specifically:

- Circle Holdings: As of July 31, 2025, I hold 527 shares of Circle Internet Financial (CRCL) through a Linqto SPV, originally valued by Linqto at $20,536.49 (approximately $38.97 per share). Circle has since completed an Initial Public Offering and is now publicly traded. As of August 7, 2025, CRCL trades at $161.71 per share, implying a current market value of $85,182.17 for my holdings—over four times the book value used in the Debtors' schedules. Pledging these assets at depressed valuations would cause substantial harm to creditors like myself.
- Ripple and Other SPVs: Similar undervaluation risks exist for other SPV holdings, including Ripple, which have been subject to market events and appreciation that may not be reflected in current valuations used by the Debtors.

Moreover, the assets that the Debtors seek to pledge as security are not property of the Debtors' bankruptcy estate. Rather, the equitable/economic rights belong to the investors like myself. To the extent that the Debtors have any rights, they consist of bare legal title. The Debtors are therefore unable to grant liens attaching to those assets.

3. Harm to Creditors.

Approving the DIP financing as currently proposed would:

- Lock in artificially low valuations for valuable SPV assets;
- Potentially transfer disproportionate value to DIP lenders at the expense of existing equity holders;
- Undermine the equitable treatment of similarly situated creditors; and
- Improperly subject property in which creditors had the sole equitable/economic rights to liens.

4. Relief Requested.

I respectfully request that the Court:

- Deny approval of the DIP financing in its current form; or
- Condition approval on a fair, updated, and transparent valuation of all SPV assets, including Circle, Ripple, and others, using current market data; and
- Ensure that no DIP liens are placed on these assets without adequate creditor protections.

Respectfully submitted,

Ilan Alon
