

REED SMITH'S QUALIFICATIONS

3. Reed Smith is well qualified to serve as the Debtors' co-counsel in these Chapter 11 Cases. Reed Smith is a large international law firm with substantial experience in virtually all aspects of the law that potentially may arise in the Chapter 11 Cases, including bankruptcy, corporate, finance, employment, litigation, mergers and acquisition, real estate, health care, and tax law. Reed Smith also has substantial experience with investigation matters involving the U.S. Department of Justice and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

4. Reed Smith's Restructuring & Insolvency Group is comprised of attorneys practicing in offices throughout the United States and overseas. Reed Smith's restructuring lawyers have played significant roles in a wide array of chapter 11 cases, including representing chapter 11 debtors in the following recent cases: In re Platinum Heights, LP, No. 25-90012 (ARP) (Bankr. S.D. Tx. 2025) (retention order entered Apr. 15, 2025); In re Eletson Holdings Inc., No. 23-10322 (JTM) (Bankr. 5. Reed Smith is intimately familiar with the Debtors' businesses and financial affairs. Reed Smith has performed legal work for the Debtors in connection with litigation, restructuring, and other significant matters. As a result of representing the Debtors on such matters, Reed Smith has acquired material knowledge of the Debtors and their businesses.

SERVICES TO BE PROVIDED BY REED SMITH

6. The Debtors requested that Reed Smith render general legal services as co-counsel to the Debtors during the pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases and provide all customary and expected services in representing the Debtors and their estates in these Chapter 11 Cases. While not explicitly stated in the Engagement Letter, Reed Smith envisions providing the following services, along with any other needs of the Debtors and their estates that arise during these Chapter

11 Cases:

- a. advise the Debtors with respect to their powers and duties as debtors and debtors-in-possession in the continued management and operation of their businesses and property;
  - b. attend meetings and negotiate with representatives of creditors and other parties in interest and advise and consult on the conduct of the Chapter 11 Case, including all of the legal and administrative requirements of operating in chapter 11;
  - c. take all necessary action to protect and preserve the Debtors' estates, including the prosecution of actions on their behalf, the defense of any actions commenced against the estates, and negotiations concerning all litigation in which the Debtors may be involved and objections to claims filed against the estates;
  - d. prepare, on behalf of the Debtors, as debtors-in-possession, all necessary motions, applications, answers, orders, reports and other papers in connection with the administration of the Debtors' estates;
  - e. appear in the Bankruptcy Court and any appellate courts and before the U.S. Trustee, and protect the interests of the Debtors' estates before such courts and the U.S. Trustee;
  - f. take all necessary actions in connection with any chapter 11 plan and related disclosure statement and all related documents, and such further actions as may be required in connection with the administration of the Debtors' estates<sup>3</sup>; and
  - g. perform all other necessary legal services in connection with the prosecution of these Chapter 11 Cases; provided, however, that to the extent Reed Smith determines that such services fall outside of the scope of services historically or generally performed by Reed Smith as debtor's general co-counsel in a bankruptcy case, Reed Smith will file a supplemental declaration.
7. Subject to this Court's approval of the Application, Reed Smith is willing to serve as the Debtors' counsel and to perform the services described above.

<sup>3</sup> STB will take the primary role in all plan-related matters. The Reed Smith team will supplement and assist the STB team with these services, but will not perform services that are unnecessarily duplicative of STB's services.

COMPENSATION AND FEE APPLICATION

8. Pursuant to the terms of the Engagement Letter, and subject to the Court's approval of this Application, Reed Smith intends to (a) charge for its legal services on an hourly basis in accordance with the ordinary and customary hourly rates in effect on the date services are rendered and (b) seek reimbursement of actual and necessary out-of-pocket expenses.

9. The names, positions, and current hourly rates of Reed Smith lawyers currently expected to spend significant time on the Chapter 11 Cases are:

Name	Title	Hourly Rate
John C. Scalzo	Partner	$1,540
Benjamin I. Koplin	Partner	$1,380
Rebecca R. Fike	Partner	$1,375
Omar J. Alaniz	Partner	$1,355
Paul D. Moak	Partner	$1,245
Adam L. Massaro	Partner	$1,200
Zachary B. Kaye	Partner	$1,205
Arielle R. Lusardi	Partner	$985
Robert B. McLellarn	Associate	$1,055
Ryan M. Pate	Associate	$1,000
Devan J. Dal Col	Associate	$915
Matthew A. Lane	Associate	$915
Tristan M. Sierra	Associate	$915
London England	Associate	$895
Dylan T.F. Ross	Associate	$895
Dylan O. Jones	Associate	$830
Emily A. Chang	Associate	$425

10. Reed Smith's hourly rates are reasonable and comparable to those charged by attorneys of similar experience and expertise for engagements of scope and complexity similar to the Chapter 11 Cases. The hourly rates set forth herein are consistent with, or lower than, the rates that Reed Smith charges other comparable chapter 11 clients and the rates that Reed Smith charges in other non-bankruptcy representations.

11. Reed Smith's hourly billing rates are subject to periodic review and adjustments, usually in January of each calendar year. Reed Smith will file a supplemental affidavit with the Court in the event of any rate increases. Reed Smith's practice of periodically adjusting its billing rates was disclosed to the Debtors in the Engagement Letter, and the Debtors have agreed to pay rates that are adjusted pursuant to the Engagement Letter.<sup>4</sup>

12. Consistent with Reed Smith's policy with respect to its other clients, Reed Smith will continue to charge the Debtors for expenses incurred in the rendition of services. Reed Smith contemplates using the following expense categories: copies, outside printing, telephone, facsimile, online research, delivery service/couriers, postage, local travel, out-of-town travel (including subcategories for transportation, hotels, meals, ground transportation), meals (local), court fees, subpoena fees, witness fees, deposition transcripts, trial transcripts, trial exhibits, litigation support vendors, experts, investigators, arbitrators/mediators, and other.

13. Reed Smith will maintain detailed, contemporaneous time records in six (6) minute intervals and apply to the Court for payment of compensation and reimbursement of expenses in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Bankruptcy Local Rules, any additional procedures that may be established by the Court in these Chapter 11 Cases, and (as applicable) the U.S. Trustee Guidelines.

14. In the 90-day period prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors paid $1,897,830.67 to Reed Smith as compensation for legal services and expenses. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors do not owe Reed Smith for any services provided prior to the Petition Date. Reed Smith has not sought a retainer in regard to these Chapter 11 Cases.

<sup>4</sup> Like many of its peer law firms, Reed Smith increases the hourly billing rate of attorneys and paraprofessionals periodically in the form of step increases in the ordinary course on the basis of advancing seniority and promotion. The step increases do not constitute "rate increases" (as the term is used in the U.S. Trustee Guidelines). Accordingly, Reed Smith does not intend to provide a separate justification for such step increases.

15. Some of Reed Smith's fees and expenses may be covered under the Debtors' insurance policies. Reed Smith requests that the Debtors be permitted to submit to their insurance carriers fees and expenses of Reed Smith that are covered under insurance policies.

DISCLOSURES CONCERNING DISINTERESTEDNESS

16. Reed Smith has represented, currently represents, and in the future likely will represent certain creditors of the Debtors and other parties-in-interest in matters unrelated to the Debtors, the Chapter 11 Cases, or claims against or interests in the Debtors.

17. Prior to submission of the Application, Reed Smith conducted a disclosure review with respect to the Debtors and the most significant parties-in-interest in the Chapter 11 Cases based on information provided by the Debtors. Of the Debtors' directors and officers, prepetition secured lenders, other secured creditors, unsecured creditors, identifiable shareholders, adverse litigants, contract parties, lessors (for the purpose of this Declaration, the aforementioned list of parties is collectively referred to herein as the "Interested Parties"), all as identified by the Debtors, Reed Smith currently represents or has represented certain entities or affiliates on matters unrelated to the Debtors and the Chapter 11 Cases. A list of all the categories of Interested Parties that were searched by Reed Smith is attached hereto as Schedule 1.

18. To identify and clear potential conflicts of interest in the Chapter 11 Cases, as well as to determine all "connections" (as such term is used in Bankruptcy Rule 2014) to the Debtors, its creditors, other parties interest, their respective attorneys and accountants, the U.S. Trustee, or any person employed in the Office of the U.S. Trustee, Reed Smith researched its client database so as to determine whether it had any relationships with the Interested Parties.<sup>5</sup> To the extent that

<sup>5</sup> The disclosure of stockholder interests or other affiliate relationships among potentially related entities reflects only information known to Reed Smith through its conflicts reporting system. Reed Smith has not performed independent research to identify all stockholder interests or other affiliated relationships with respect to interested parties.

Reed Smith's research of its relationships with the Interested Parties indicates that Reed Smith has represented in the past two years or currently represents any of these entities in matters unrelated to the Chapter 11 Cases, the identities of such entities and such entities' relationship to the Debtors and connection to Reed Smith are set forth in Schedule 2 hereto.

19. As indicated on Schedule 2 or disclosed herein, Reed Smith represents certain Interested Parties in matters unrelated to these Chapter 11 Cases. The Reed Smith principals of these Chapter 11 Cases are not engaged in those matters, and there is no conflict that would prevent Reed Smith from undertaking its obligations to the Debtors and their estates. Reed Smith's adversity to, or representation of, certain Interested Parties in unrelated matters will not affect Reed Smith's representation of the Debtors in the Chapter 11 Cases.

20. Reed Smith represented, and may continue to represent, the following employees and members of the board of directors of the Debtors in interviews in connection with investigations conducted by the United States Department of Justice and United States Securities & Exchange Commission: (1) Michael Majoue, (2) Kristen Kieffer, (3) Miranda Rousey, (4) Elizabeth Cresson, (5) Josh Disbrow, (6) Michael Cress, and (7) Barry Michaels.

REED SMITH IS A DISINTERESTED PERSON

21. To the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, insofar as I have been able to ascertain after reasonable inquiry, Reed Smith is a "disinterested person," as defined in section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code and as required by section 327(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, because: (a) Reed Smith has no connection with the Debtors, their creditors, the U.S. Trustee, any person employed in the Office of the U.S. Trustee, or any other party with an actual or potential interest in the Chapter 11 Cases, except as set forth in Schedule 2; (b) Reed Smith is not a creditor, equity security holder, or insider of the Debtors; (c) no Reed Smith partner, associate, or other professional is, or was within two years of the Petition Date, a director, officer, or employee of the Debtors; and (d) Reed Smith neither holds nor represents an interest materially adverse to the Debtors and their estates.

22. Despite the efforts described above to identify and disclose connections with parties in interest in the Chapter 11 Cases, because Reed Smith is an international firm with more than 1,600 attorneys in 35 offices, Reed Smith is unable to state with certainty that every client representation or other connection of Reed Smith has been disclosed. In this regard, if Reed Smith discovers additional information that requires disclosure, Reed Smith will file supplemental disclosures with the Court.

23. Other than as set forth above, as of the date of this declaration, I am not aware of circumstances with Interested Parties that would give rise to a conflict of interest. Accordingly, Reed Smith has not sought to obtain, and does not intend at this time to seek, conflict waivers from any creditors of the Debtors or other interested parties that Reed Smith currently represents in matters unrelated to the Debtors or the Chapter 11 Cases.
