Explanations

FILING OF CHAPTER 11 BANKRUPTCY CASE. A bankruptcy case under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (Title 11, United States Code) has been filed in this court by the debtors listed in this notice, and an order for relief has been entered. Chapter 11 allows a debtor to reorganize or liquidate pursuant to a plan. A plan is not effective unless confirmed by the Court. You may be sent a copy of the plan and a disclosure statement telling you about the plan, and you might have the opportunity to vote on the plan. You will be sent notice of the date of the confirmation hearing, and you may object to confirmation of the plan and attend the confirmation hearing. Unless a trustee is appointed, the debtors will remain in possession of their property and may continue to operate their businesses.

CREDITORS MAY NOT TAKE CERTAIN ACTIONS. Prohibited collection actions are listed in Bankruptcy Code § 362. Common examples of prohibited actions include contacting the debtors by telephone, mail, or otherwise to demand repayment; taking actions to collect money or obtain property from the debtors; repossessing the debtors' property; and starting or continuing lawsuits or foreclosures.

MEETING OF CREDITORS. A meeting of creditors is scheduled for the date, time, and location listed on page 2 of this notice. The debtors must be present at the meeting to be questioned under oath by creditors. Creditors are welcome to attend, but are not required to do so. The meeting may be continued and concluded at a later date without further notice.

CLAIMS. A proof of claim is a signed statement describing a creditor's claim. You may obtain a proof of claim form at any bankruptcy clerk's office. You may look at the schedules that have been or will be filed in this case at the bankruptcy clerk's office. If your claim is scheduled and is not listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated, it will be allowed in the amount scheduled unless you file a proof of claim or you are sent further notice about the claim. Whether or not your claim is scheduled, you are permitted to file a proof of claim. If your claim is not listed at all or if your claim is listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated, then you must file a proof of claim or you might not be paid any money on your claim against the debtors in these bankruptcy cases. The Court has not yet set a deadline to file a proof of claim. When a deadline is set, you will be sent another notice.

NOTICE OF PROCEEDINGS. As provided in the *Second Amended and Restated General Order 26-2019, Procedures for Complex Chapter 11 Cases, dated February 6, 2023, at ¶ D., you will not receive notice of all motions and other proceedings in these bankruptcy cases unless you file a request with the bankruptcy clerk's office to receive copies of all papers filed in these cases. Even if you do not file a request for copies of all papers, you will still receive notice of the deadline for filing proofs of claim, notice of the deadline for objecting to and of the hearing to consider approval of a disclosure statement, notice of the deadline for accepting or rejecting a plan of reorganization, notice of the deadline for objecting to and of the hearing to consider confirmation of a plan of reorganization, and notice of any paper or proceeding likely to directly affect your interests.

DISCHARGE OF DEBTS. Confirmation of a Chapter 11 plan may result in discharge of debts, which may include all or part of your debt. See Bankruptcy Code § 1141(d). A discharge means that you may never try to collect the debt from the debtors, except as provided in the plan.

BANKRUPTCY CLERK'S OFFICE. Any paper that you file in this bankruptcy case should be filed at the bankruptcy clerk's office at the address listed on page 2 of this notice, except that proofs of claim should be filed with Epiq Corporate Restructuring, LLC which is acting as the claims agent in this case. The address for Epiq Corporate Restructuring, LLC is listed on page 2 of this notice.
