BitNile, Inc. ("BitNile"), for its Emergency Motion Under Bankruptcy Rule 3018 for Temporary Allowance of Class 3 Claim for Voting Purposes Only (the "Motion" or "Emergency Motion"), respectfully represents:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This Emergency Motion seeks to prevent a bogus objection from improperly disenfranchising a significant and legitimate creditor from voting on the Debtors' chapter 11 plan [Docket No. 889] (the "Plan"). The Debtors' original claim objection and supporting declaration of Portage Point [Docket Nos. 846 and 846-1, respectively] allege, among other items, that BitNile has no claim, even for the amount of its paid Deposit, despite the fact that the Debtors never energized BitNile's mining machines, never performed any of their obligations under the Master Agreement (defined below), and even though the Debtors have still not returned to BitNile all of its approximately 6,572 miners, which have a value in excess of $40 million.² With its Master Agreement (defined below) recently rejected [Docket No. 871] (the "Rejection Order"), after months of damaging delay, and still without recovery of its miners, BitNile is now forced to find another location (or build its own) to energize and operate its miners. In the face of these facts, it is unconscionable that the Debtors seek to strip BitNile of its Plan vote.

² The Debtors have not returned approximately 5,711 miners. As set forth below, approximately 861 miners have been returned, though with damage.

2. The Court should, therefore, allow BitNile’s claim as set forth herein for voting purposes only, with all parties’ rights reserved on the underlying merits of the claim for later adjudication.

II. REQUEST FOR EMERGENCY HEARING

3. The Debtors objected to BitNile’s Initial Claim (as defined below) on January 13, 2023 [Docket No. 846] (the “Initial Claim Objection”). Subsequent to this Initial Claim Objection, on January 27, 2023, the Court entered its Rejection Order, rejecting BitNile’s Master Agreement (defined below) and which provided a 30-day window for BitNile to file its rejection claim. On February 1, 2023, BitNile filed its rejection claim (the “Rejection Claim”) which, as the Court well knows, is deemed allowed and is prima facie valid unless and until an objection thereto is filed. 11 U.S.C. § 502(a). No objection to the Rejection Claim has yet been filed, but as a result of the Debtors’ pending Initial Claim Objection, BitNile has been unable to officially vote its Rejection Claim. The Debtors have informally advised BitNile they dispute the Rejection Claim, as well as BitNile’s right to vote on the Plan.

4. On February 4, 2023, the Debtors provided BitNile with a form of proposed stipulation and agreed order allowing the Rejection Claim for voting purposes only in the amount of $2,213,046.70. Discussions between the parties ensued until February 9, 2023, at which point the Debtors informed BitNile they no longer had authority to enter into the stipulation unless it contained a “global resolution” of all claims, including BitNile’s causes of action against certain of the Debtors’ insiders for, inter alia, fraud in the inducement, pending in federal court in Minnesota.³

³ In that regard, on February 1, 2023, BitNile filed its Notice of Non-Consent and Election to Opt-Out of Third-Party Releases [Docket No. 895].

5. Given that February 10, 2023, is the deadline established by the Court to file rule 3018 motions [Docket No. 715], and to avoid being disenfranchised at the last minute, BitNile seeks emergency relief to have its Rejection Claim allowed for voting purposes, as set forth herein.

III. FACTS AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

6. BitNile is a leading cryptocurrency miner. BitNile and Compute North LLC are parties to that certain Master Agreement, dated August 15, 2022 (the “Master Agreement”), pursuant to which Compute North was to provide colocation and other services for BitNile’s cryptocurrency mining hardware (the “Mining Equipment”). BitNile’s Mining Equipment has a value in excess of $40 million.

7. Upon entry into the Master Agreement, BitNile and Compute North executed an Order Form (the “Order Form”) pursuant to which (a) BitNile delivered approximately 6,572 miners to Compute North, ultimately to be located in the Wolf Hollow Facility in Granbury, Texas (the “Wolf Hollow Facility”), which facility was owned by non-debtor CN Borrower, LLC (“CN Borrower”) and (b) Compute North was to install those miners and provide, among other things, electricity and network connectivity necessary for the miners to operate.⁴

8. On August 22, 2022, BitNile paid an initial deposit in the amount of $2,012,088.00 (the “Deposit”) to Compute North. At the time the Deposit was made, BitNile was assured that its Mining Equipment would be ready for use and energized in the September/October 2022 time period. Nevertheless, the Mining Equipment was never energized or “powered on.”

9. According to the Declaration of Harold Coulby, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer of the Debtors, In Support of the Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Pleadings [Docket No. 22] (the “Coulby Declaration”), and unbeknownst to BitNile, three days prior to execution of the Master Agreement (that is, August 12, 2022), the Debtors' lender and purchaser herein, Generate Lending LLC ("Generate"), exercised a voting proxy and appointed its own managers to form a new board and take control of CN Borrower and the Wolf Hollow Facility. Generate also exercised its rights under a deposit account control agreement and restricted use of a bank account containing $23.6 million. Coulby Declaration ¶¶ 60–62. Despite surely knowing these critical facts, the Debtors failed to make any disclosures about the same to BitNile.

10. The Deposit has never been returned or accounted for by the Debtors.

11. On September 22, 2022 (the "Petition Date"), Debtors each filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code").

12. On November 16, 2022, BitNile timely filed its initial claim against Compute North LLC in the amount of $2,124,493.00 (the "Initial Claim"). A true and correct copy of the Initial Claim is attached hereto as Exhibit B and incorporated herein by reference.

13. As part of the normal-course confirmation process, the Debtors served a Class 3 Ballot upon BitNile with its own unique E-Ballot ID 275-01210769339, so that BitNile could vote its Class 3 Claim for or against the Plan.

14. On January 10, 2023, BitNile submitted its ballot in the voting amount of $2,124,493.00 to "Reject" the Plan and also "Opted Out" of the third-party releases. The Opt Out was important as BitNile previously commenced a lawsuit in the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota against various officers and employees of Compute North for fraud, fraudulent concealment/fraudulent nondisclosure, and civil conspiracy.⁵

15. On January 19, 2023, the Debtors filed their Initial Claim Objection to BitNile's Initial Claim, alleging that: (i) BitNile was not entitled to claim the amount of its Deposit because the Master Agreement “provides that deposits under the agreement are ‘non-transferrable under any circumstance and are not refundable’ except under certain conditions not applicable to BitNile or its deposit”; and (ii) BitNile was not entitled to claim storage and shipping costs as they were “BitNile’s to bear” and “the Debtors were never responsible for them, under the Master Agreement or otherwise.”

16. On January 27, 2023, this Court entered its Rejection Order, which rejected the Master Agreement and Order Form (among other agreements) and gave counterparties to the rejected contracts thirty (30) days to submit proofs of claim for rejection damages.

17. BitNile filed its Rejection Claim on February 1, 2023. A true and correct copy of the Rejection Claim is attached hereto as Exhibit C and incorporated herein by reference. The Rejection Claim asserts a claim for the following amounts:

Category	Amount
Deposit paid	$2,012,088.00
Storage fees incurred to-date	$22,481.70
Estimated additional storage fees expected to be incurred through May 2023 ⁶	$20,000.00
Initial moving fees to Wolf Hollow Facility	$90,405.00
Estimated moving fees from Wolf Hollow Facility	$68,072.00
Estimated packaging costs to ship Mining Equipment	TBD ⁷
Lost profits for the period October 1, 2022 through May 2023, which is comprised of: $103,556.85 in losses between October 1, 2022 and January 31, 2023, ⁸ and estimated losses of $125,446.92 for February 1,	$229,003.95

⁷ BitNile is awaiting an estimate of these costs from US Bitcoin Corp. as operator of the Wolf Hollow Facility.

⁸ These amounts were calculated using the calculator available at:

<https://www.coinwarz.com/mining/bitcoin/calculator>, utilizing the following inputs: (i) Bitcoin Mining Hashrate: 650 PH (for 6,572 machines); (ii) Power Consumption of 1,985,000 Watts (for all 6,572 machines); (iii) Electrical costs all in at $0.07; and (iv) Pool/maintenance fee of .03%.

Category	Amount
2023 through June 30, 2023 (based on the average per diem losses for the period October 1, 2022 through January 31, 2023)
Estimated cover damages (for the period July 1, 2023, through September 30, 2027) ⁹	$18,625,454.40
TOTAL	$21,067,505.05

18. While the Debtors have not yet objected to the Rejection Claim, they have informed BitNile they disagree with the Rejection Claim for the same reasons set forth in the Initial Claim Objection, and that BitNile’s claim for lost profits and cover damages (as reflected in the Rejection Claim) are barred by Article 11 of the Master Agreement, which contains certain limitations on liability. However, BitNile submits those limitations do not apply where, inter alia, Compute North never performed any services under the Master Agreement, and where Compute North and its executives fraudulently induced BitNile to enter into the Master Agreement. See, e.g., Simmonds Equip., LLC v. GGR Int’l, Inc., 126 F. Supp. 3d 855, 867 (S.D. Tex. 2015) (holding that party could not limit liability based on agreement “because ‘Texas courts may not enforce a contractual limitation of liability as a defense to an intentional tort such as fraud’”); Aluchem, Inc. v. Sherwin Alumina, L.P., No. CIV.A. C-06-183, 2007 WL 1100473, at *9 (S.D. Tex. Apr. 11, 2007) (same); see also Kalisch-Jarcho, Inc. v. City of New York, 58 N.Y.2d 377, 385 (1983) (“an exculpatory clause is unenforceable when, in contravention of acceptable notions of morality, the misconduct for which it would grant immunity smacks of intentional wrongdoing. This can be explicit, as when it is fraudulent”).

19. Moreover, as of today, the Debtors have still not returned all of BitNile’s Mining Equipment, which has a value of $40 million, and which BitNile fears may be damaged and/or wrongfully withheld. Indeed, of BitNile's 6,572 miners, the first return shipment of 861 miners revealed a variety of damage and denting to the machinery, which will result in additional losses to BitNile and hence, and increased claim amount.

20. Finally, as stated above, on February 1, 2023, BitNile attempted to vote the Rejection Claim, but was not permitted to do so by the balloting agent as a result of the Debtors' pending Initial Claim Objection.

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

21. By this Motion, BitNile respectfully requests the entry of an order, pursuant to Rule 3018 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, temporarily allowing its Rejection Claim solely for the purpose of voting to accept or reject the Plan.

V. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

22. The Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334(b). Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. This matter is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A), (B), (L) and (O).

23. The predicates for the relief requested herein include, without limitation, sections 105, 1126 and 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3018.

VI. ARGUMENTS AND AUTHORITIES

24. Only holders of allowed claims or interests are permitted to vote to accept or reject a chapter 11 plan. 11 U.S.C. § 1126. A claim represented by a timely and properly filed proof of claim "is deemed allowed, unless a party in interest . . . objects." 11 U.S.C. § 502(a).

25. Where a claim is not yet allowed due to a pending objection, a court may temporarily allow the claim or interest in an amount which the court deems proper for the purpose of accepting or rejecting a plan. Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a) ("Notwithstanding objection to a claim or interest, the court after notice and hearing may temporarily allow the claim or interest in an amount which the court deems proper for the purpose of accepting or rejecting a plan.”).

26. The policy behind Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a) is “to prevent possible abuse by plan proponents” who attempt to ensure acceptance of a plan by strategically objecting to the claims of dissenting creditors. In re Armstrong, 294 B.R. 344, 354 (10th Cir. B.A.P. 2003). Claims litigation can also be lengthy and may not be resolved before voting on a plan. Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a) “was designed to give all creditors, even those holding disputed claims, the opportunity to vote.” In re Century Glove, Inc., 88 B.R. 45, 46 (Bankr. D. Del. 1988).

27. The court’s discretion to allow a claim temporarily for voting purposes is flexible. See In re Ralph Lauren Womenswear, Inc., 197 B.R. 771, 775 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1996). Bankruptcy courts also have flexibility to “employ whatever method is best suited to the circumstances of the case” when determining whether and in what amount to allow a claim for voting purposes. Id. at 775; see also In re Frascella Enterprises, Inc., 360 B.R. 435, 458 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 2007) (stating that determination of whether and how to temporarily allow claim is left to the court’s discretion but declining to do so since the outcome of the vote will not affect the outcome of confirmation).

28. Although the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules provide no guidance as to how a court should calculate a claim for voting purposes, courts have held that the calculation “should ensure that the voting power is commensurate with the creditor’s economic interests in the case.” In re Quigley Co., 346 B.R. 647, 654 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2006). When determining whether to temporarily allow a claim, courts may look to (1) the debtor’s scheduling of the claim, (2) the proof of claim filed, and (3) the debtor’s objection to determine parties’ expectations regarding the amount and nature of the claim to be voted. In re Stone Hedge Props., 191 B.R. 59, 65 (Bankr. M.D. Pa. 1995). Calculation of a claim under Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a), however, is not determinative of or preclusive upon the ultimate validity or amount of the claim or any causes of action before a non-bankruptcy court. See Quigley, 346 B.R. at 654.

29. BitNile's Rejection Claim constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity of such rejection claim, 11 U.S.C. § 502(a), and nothing in the Initial Claim Objection or otherwise rebuts the presumption in favor of allowing BitNile's claim for voting. Without this relief, a major creditor in these cases will be unfairly disenfranchised and have no opportunity to vote on the Plan.

30. Under the circumstances present here, the Court should exercise its discretion to temporarily allow BitNile's Rejection Claim solely for the purpose of voting on the Plan. Temporarily allowing BitNile's Rejection Claim for voting purposes comports with the spirit of the Bankruptcy Code, which encourages creditor voting and participation in the reorganization process. In re Amarex Inc., 61 B.R. 301, 303 (Bankr. W.D. Okla. 1985) (“[T]o allow [the disputed claims] to vote on the plans, even though some may be eventually disallowed for purposes of distribution, is more in keeping with the spirit of Chapter 11 which encourages creditor vote and participation in the reorganization process.”). BitNile's Rejection Claim should be allowed for voting as a Class 3 claim to avoid abuse by the Plan proponents and/or disenfranchising a legitimate creditor from voting.

PRAYER

WHEREFORE, BitNile respectfully requests that the Court enter an order, substantially in the form attached hereto (i) temporarily allowing BitNile's Rejection Claim for voting purposes only, (ii) permitting BitNile to actually vote its Rejection Claim for or against the Plan as BitNile may determine and (iii) granting BitNile such other and further relief as may be just and proper.

1. Services. Compute North shall provide, and Customer shall pay for, the colocation, managed and other services (the “Services”) for Customer’s cryptocurrency mining hardware (the “Mining Equipment,” and collectively with any Capital Equipment and Acquired Hardware, the “Equipment”) identified on the order form attached hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibit A, as may be updated or supplemented in writing and duly signed by Customer and Compute North from time to time (the “Order Form”). Compute North shall provide the Services consistent with, and as more fully described in, its customer handbook (the “Customer Handbook”), available at www.computenorth.com/handbook-sla.pdf and incorporated herein, as Compute North may update from time to time.

 - 2.3. Customer Portal. Compute North will provide Customer with access to its customer portal. Customer’s access to and use of the customer portal is subject to, and Customer agrees to be bound by, Compute North’s Terms of Use, available at www.computenorth.com/terms-of-use/ and incorporated herein, as Compute North may update from time to time. All written notices required by Customer under this Agreement shall be submitted using the customer portal, and all written notices by Compute North may be made using the customer portal or by email to the address set forth on Customer’s most recent Order Form.
 - 2.4. Transfer of Mining Equipment. Customer shall promptly notify Compute North if it transfers legal title or grants to any third-party rights in or to any Equipment to a third party. All such transfers shall be subject to and shall preserve Compute North’s security interest under Section 6. In the event of a transfer, Customer shall remain obligated to pay Compute North the Monthly Service Fees for the transferred Mining Equipment for the remainder of the Equipment Term applicable to such Mining Equipment unless and until such Mining Equipment is placed into service under, and is subject to, a collocation agreement between the acquiring third party and Compute North, which shall require Compute North’s approval (including satisfaction of Compute North’s credit and know-your-customer requirements).
 - 2.5. Transfer of Services. Customer may not sublicense, assign, delegate or otherwise transfer its receipt of Services under this Agreement to a third party without Compute North’s written consent in its sole discretion. Compute North shall not under any circumstance be deemed to be providing any Services to any third party for or on behalf of Customer.
3. Hardware Acquisition. Compute North agrees to acquire and sell to Customer, and Customer agrees to buy from Compute North, such cryptocurrency mining hardware, if any, elected on the Order Form ("Acquired Hardware"). The initial deposit for the Acquired Hardware set forth on the Order Form (the "Hardware Deposit") shall be due and payable as of the date on which Compute North and Customer have both executed the Order Form, with the remaining balance owed for the Acquired Hardware due and payable by the earlier of (a) the date on which Compute North notifies Customer that the Acquired Hardware has been shipped or (b) as stated on the Order Form. Legal title to the Acquired Equipment only shall transfer to Customer when the fee for the Acquired Hardware has been paid to Compute North in full. The Acquired Hardware shall be Mining Equipment subject to this Agreement upon its delivery to the Facility. Customer solely shall be responsible for determining whether the Acquired Hardware is fit and suitable for its particular purposes. Customer acknowledges that no warranty, express or implied, is provided by Compute North for any Acquired Hardware and agrees that the only warranties associated therewith are the warranties, if any, offered or made by the manufacturers thereof.

4. Term and Termination.

- 4.1. Term of Agreement. This Agreement shall be effective as of the date on which it has been executed by Compute North and Customer (the "Effective Date") and, unless otherwise terminated, shall continue until all Equipment Terms for all Equipment under each Order Form have expired or terminated.
- 4.2. Equipment Term. The Equipment Term set forth on an Order Form for each piece of Equipment shall commence as of the date Compute North notifies Customer in writing that the Mining Equipment has been received and turned on by Compute North. Unless an Order Form provides otherwise, the Equipment Term shall renew for successive one (1) month periods unless one party notifies the other in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to the conclusion of the then-current Equipment Term.
- 4.3. Mining Equipment Return. Upon Customer's written request, and provided that Customer has paid all amounts then due and owing under this Agreement, Compute North shall decommission and return the corresponding Mining Equipment to Customer upon the expiration or termination of the applicable Equipment Term as provided in Section 8.3.
- 4.4. Event of Default. An event of default (each, a "Default") shall exist if Customer: (a) fails to make any payment(s) due pursuant to this Agreement; (b) violates, or fails to perform or fulfill any covenant or provision of this Agreement, and such matter is not cured within ten (10) days after written notice from Compute North; or (c) enters into bankruptcy, dissolution, financial failure or insolvency.
- 4.5. Effect of Default. In the event of a Default by Customer, Compute North may terminate this Agreement or any Order Form on written notice to Customer and Customer shall pay immediately to Compute North (i) all amounts then owed under this Agreement (or the applicable Order Form(s)) plus, (ii) as liquidated damages, the Fees that would have been paid for the remainder of the applicable Equipment Term(s) if the Agreement or Order Form(s), as applicable, were not terminated. The Parties agree that the damages sustained by Compute North in connection with the termination of this Agreement may be difficult or impossible to determine, or that obtaining an adequate remedy would be unreasonably time consuming or expensive and otherwise inconvenient, and therefore agree that in the event of such termination, the liquidated damages are a reasonable approximation of the harm or loss, and not a penalty. If Customer fails to make any payments due under this Agreement (including, as applicable, the amounts specified in clauses (i) and (ii) above plus interest thereon, the "Default Amount"), in addition to any other rights and remedies it may have, Compute North shall have the right to (a) sell or retain possession of, (b) reconfigure for Compute North's use, or (c) remove and store at Customer's expense, all or any portion of the Mining Equipment without any cost, obligation or liability of Compute North to Customer; provided, that the net proceeds received by Compute North in exercise of its remedies under clauses (a) and (b) may not exceed the aggregate Default Amount for this Agreement or Order Form(s), as applicable.

- 5.1. Initial Fees. The one-time fee for setup, installation, and configuration of Mining Equipment (the "Initial Setup Fee") and the initial deposit specified in the applicable Order Form (the "Initial Deposit") and any Hardware Deposit shall be due and payable as of the date on which Compute North and Customer have both executed an Order Form. The Initial Setup Fee is non-refundable and non-transferrable under any circumstance.  - 5.2. Monthly Fees. Customer shall pay to Compute North the Monthly Service Fees and Monthly Package Fees (collectively, the "Fees") as set forth on the Order Form. Compute North reserves the right to adjust fixed-rate Monthly Service Fees (but not performance-based Monthly Service Fees) based on the actual performance and efficiency of the Equipment, as reasonably determined by Compute North. Late payments of any Fees shall bear interest at the lesser of 1.5% per month or the maximum amount allowed under applicable law.
 - 5.3. Taxes. All amounts payable by Customer under this Agreement are exclusive of, and Customer shall solely be responsible for paying, all taxes, duties, and fees, including federal, state, and local taxes on manufacture, sales, gross income, receipts, occupation, and use, not based on Compute North's income that arise out of this Agreement. If any deduction, withholding, or payment for taxes is required in any jurisdiction on amounts payable to Compute North, Customer shall indemnify and make Compute North whole for the full amount thereof.
 - 5.4. Payment Method. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, all payments due and owing under this Agreement shall be made through automated clearing house ("ACH") transfers by Compute North from an account established by Customer at a United States bank designated by Customer (the "Payment Account"). Customer agrees to execute and deliver to Compute North or its ACH payment agent an authorization agreement authorizing Compute North to initiate ACH transfers from the Payment Account to Compute North in the amounts required or permitted under this Agreement. Customer shall be responsible for all costs, expenses or other fees and charges incurred by Compute North as a result of any failed or returned ACH transfers, whether resulting from insufficient sums being available in the Payment Account or otherwise.

Customer agrees that the Fees reflect Compute North's participation in the LRP Programs and that Compute North shall have no liability to Customer for any actions or omissions due to or resulting from its participation in the LRP Programs.

This Agreement, including the Order Form and any documents referenced herein, constitutes the parties' entire understanding regarding its subject and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous communications, agreements and understanding, including any prior master or colocation agreement, between them relating thereto. In the event of a conflict between the terms and conditions of this Master Agreement and an Order Form, the specific terms and conditions of the Order Form shall take precedence. Customer acknowledges and agrees that it has not, and will not, rely upon any representations, understandings, or other agreements not specifically set forth in this Agreement. This Agreement shall not be superseded, terminated, modified, or amended except by express written agreement of the parties that specifically identifies this Agreement.
- 13.3. Waiver, Severability. The waiver of any breach or default does not constitute the waiver of any subsequent breach or default. - 13.4. Assignment. Except as part of or in connection with a Change of Control or a reorganization solely among Customer and its Affiliates, Customer shall not assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights, or delegate or otherwise transfer any of its obligations or performance under this Agreement, in each case whether voluntarily, involuntarily, by operation of law, or otherwise, without Compute North's written consent. Customer shall notify Compute North in writing within ten (10) days of any assignment or transfer under this Section 13.4. Compute North may at any time assign, transfer, delegate, or subcontract any or all of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without Customer's written consent. This also includes planned service and maintenance needs. Under no circumstances shall the following constitute a force majeure: (i) a Party's inability to finance its obligations or the unavailability of funds to pay amounts when due in the currency of payment, (ii) changes in either Party's market factors, default of payment obligations or other commercial, financial or economic conditions, including failure or loss of any cryptocurrency markets, (iii) the ability of Customer to obtain better economic terms for the Services or similar services or (iv) Customer's failure to timely apply for any licenses, permits, consents, or approvals. No force majeure shall relieve, suspend, or otherwise cause either Party from performing any obligation to indemnify, reimburse, hold harmless or otherwise pay the other Party under this Agreement, including Customer's obligation to pay any Fees. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Force Majeure includes an increase of ten percent (10%) or more in Compute North's variable operating costs.
- 13.6. Compliance with Laws. Customer's use of the Facility and the Equipment located at the Facility shall conform to all applicable Law, including international Law, the Law of the jurisdictions in which Customer is doing business and where the Facility is located. In the event that there is a new or a change in Law that causes Compute North to directly or indirectly incur new or additional costs in connection with the Services or the Facility, Compute North may pass through such costs to Customer without markup, terminate this Agreement or any Order Form, or modify the Services as necessary to account for such costs. Customer shall timely cooperate in any audit or review of Customer's compliance with the terms hereof conducted by or on behalf of Compute North, responding accurately and completely to all inquiries, and providing any requested documents.

The parties waive, to the fullest extent permitted by Law, any objection that they may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any such action or proceeding in such courts and any claim that any such action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY THAT MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES AND, THEREFORE, EACH SUCH PARTY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LEGAL ACTION ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

OBJECTION, STATEMENT OF CURE AMOUNT, AND RESERVATION OF RIGHTS OF BITNILE INC. REGARDING THE SALE ORDER AND THE DEBTORS' NOTICE OF CURE SCHEDULE

BitNile, Inc. ("BitNile"), a creditor and contract counterparty of the above-captioned debtors, hereby submits its Objection, Statement of Cure Amount, and Reservation of Rights (this "Objection") regarding the (a) Order (I) Approving the Sale of Debtor CN Pledgor LLC's Equity Interests in CN Borrower LLC Free and Clear of all Liens, Claims, and Encumbrances, (II) Authorizing the Assumption and Assignment of Certain Executory Contracts in Connection Therewith, and (III) Granting Related Relief, dated November 1, 2022 [Docket. No. 362] (the "Sale Order") and (b) Notice of Filing of Cure Schedule in Connection with Proposed Sale [Docket No. 209] and supplements/amendments thereto (collectively, the "Assumption Notice"), and respectfully states as follows:

¹ The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor's federal tax identification number, include: Compute North Holdings, Inc. (4534); Compute North LLC (7185); CN Corpus Christi LLC (5551); CN Atoka LLC (4384); CN Big Spring LLC (4397); CN Colorado Bend LLC (4610); CN Developments LLC (2570); CN Equipment LLC (6885); CN King Mountain LLC (7190); CN Minden LLC (3722); CN Mining LLC (5223); CN Pledgor LLC (9871); Compute North Member LLC (8639); Compute North NC08 LLC (8069); Compute North NY09 LLC (5453); Compute North SD, LLC (1501); Compute North Texas LLC (1883); Compute North TX06 LLC (5921); and Compute North TX10 LLC (4238). The Debtors' service address for the purposes of these chapter 11 cases is 7575 Corporate Way, Eden Prairie, Minnesota 55344.

Background

1. BitNile is a leading cryptocurrency miner. BitNile and debtor Compute North LLC (“Compute North”) are parties to that certain Master Agreement, dated August 15, 2022 (the “Master Agreement”), pursuant to which Compute North was to provide colocation and other services for BitNile’s cryptocurrency mining hardware (the “Mining Equipment”). BitNile’s Mining Equipment—with a value in excess of $40 million—is its own property and is not property of the estate: the Debtors may neither use, sell nor lease the Mining Equipment under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise.

2. Upon entry into the Master Agreement, BitNile and Compute North executed an Order Form (the “Order Form”) pursuant to which (a) BitNile delivered approximately 6,572 miners to Compute North, to be located in the Wolf Hollow Facility in Granbury, Texas (the “Wolf Hollow Facility”), which facility is owned by non-debtor CN Borrower, LLC (“CN Borrower”) and (b) Compute North was to install those miners and provide, among other things, electricity and network connectivity necessary to operate those miners.

3. On August 22, 2022, BitNile paid an initial deposit in the amount of $2,012,088.00 (the “Deposit”) to Compute North. At the time the Deposit was made, BitNile was assured that its Mining Equipment would be ready for use and energized. As stated below, however, the Debtors made material misrepresentations to BitNile about their financial condition and their abilities to operate and energize the facility.

4. According to the Declaration of Harold Coulby, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer of the Debtors, In Support of the Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Pleadings (the “Coulby Declaration”) [Docket No 22], and unbeknownst to BitNile, just three days prior to execution of the Master Agreement (that is, August 12, 2022), the Debtors’ lender and purchaser herein, Generate Lending LLC (“Generate”), exercised a voting proxy and appointed its own managers to form a new board and take control of CN Borrower and the Wolf Hollow Facility and also exercised its rights under a deposit account control agreement and restricted use of a bank account containing $23.6 million. Coulby Declaration ¶¶ 60–62. None of this was disclosed to BitNile by the Debtors.

5. BitNile believes it was defrauded in connection with the execution of the Master Agreement and the inducement to make the Deposit. Indeed, just weeks after the Deposit was made, this chapter 11 case was commenced and BitNile was never able to energize the Mining Equipment located at the Wolf Hollow Facility. Further, it appears as if the Deposit is currently unaccounted for by the Debtors, and BitNile has yet to be advised where the Deposit is being held or whether it has been appropriately reserved for its designated purpose.

6. To date, Compute North has failed to perform its obligations under the Master Agreement and the Order Form. The Mining Equipment has not been energized or “powered on” notwithstanding assurances from Compute North to the contrary. As a result, BitNile has suffered, and continues to suffer, mounting daily damages due to its inability to utilize its Mining Equipment at the Wolf Hollow Facility.

7. On September 22, 2022, the Debtors, including Compute North, each filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) in this Court.

A. The Expedited Sale Process

8. The sale process in this case has occurred in an expedited fashion.

9. On October 24, 2022, the Court entered its Order (A) Approving De Minimis Asset Sale Procedures; (B) Approving Certain Bidding Procedures, Assumption, Assignment, and Rejection Procedures, and the Form and Manner of Notice Thereof; (C) Authorizing the Debtors to Enter into Asset Purchase Agreements with Stalking Horse Bidders; and (D) Scheduling a Hearing on the Approval of the Sale of the Debtors' Remaining Assets Free and Clear of all Encumbrances as well as the Assumption and Assignment of Certain Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases [Docket No. 256] (the "Sale Procedures Order").

10. Under the Sale Procedures Order, bids were due three days later, on October 27, 2022, and an auction was to occur four days later, on October 28, 2022. No bids were received other than from Generate, and the Sale Order was entered on November 1, 2022.

11. The Sale Procedures Order also approved certain assumption and assignment procedures with respect to those executory contracts and unexpired leases that the Debtors proposed to assume and assign.

B. BitNile Receives No Notice

12. BitNile did not receive any of the pleadings relating to the sale, the possible assignment of its Master Agreement, or a copy of the Assumption Notice (as defined in the Sale Procedures Order).

13. Based on documents provided to BitNile's counsel on November 1, 2022, but only after inquiry was made, it appears that BitNile never received notice because the Debtors were using an incorrect address. This despite the fact that BitNile's address is set forth in the Master Agreement.

14. Moreover, BitNile's name was curiously redacted from Court filings, and was thus not searchable on the Court's docket or the claims agent's website.

15. Upon receipt of the Assumption Notice on November 1, 2022, BitNile observed that the Master Agreement was listed as an executory contract that might be assumed and assigned. The Debtors have incorrectly listed "$0.00" as the Cure Amount for the Master Agreement.

Objection and Statement of Lease Cure Amount

16. Where there has been a default in an executory contract, a debtor may not assume the contract unless, at the time of assumption of such contract, the debtor:

- (A) cures, or provides adequate assurance that the debtor will promptly cure, such default;
- (B) compensates, or provides adequate assurance that the debtor will promptly compensate, a party other than the debtor to such contract or lease, for any actual pecuniary loss to such party resulting from such default; and
- (C) provides adequate assurance of future performance under such contract.

See 11 U.S.C. § 365(b)(1).

17. Assumption of the Master Agreement requires compliance with all contract terms, and amounts determined to be owed under such assumed contracts are not discharged. See Century Indem. Co. v. Nat'l Gypsum Co. Settlement Tr. (In re Nat'l Gypsum Co.), 208 F.3d 498 (5th Cir. 2000). “If [a] debtor has defaulted under the contract . . . the debtor may not assume the contract unless the debtor, inter alia, cures the default or provides adequate assurance that it will do so.” Quantum Diversified Holdings, Inc. v. Wienheimer (In re Escarent Entities, L.P.), 423 F. App’x 462, 465 (5th Cir. 2011).

18. The obligation to cure under section 365 extends to monetary and non-monetary defaults alike. To cure a monetary default under section 365, a debtor must pay all amounts due under the contract. See In re Nat'l Gypsum Co., 208 F.3d at 506. To determine the appropriate means of curing a non-monetary default, courts examine the provisions of the contract to define “the nature of a default and the cure it requires.” Empire Equities Capital Corp., 405 B.R. 687, 691 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2009) (citing In re Shangra-La, Inc., 167 F.3d 843, 848–49 (4th Cir. 1999)); see Quantum Diversified Holdings, Inc. v. Wienheimer (In re Escarent Entities, L.P.), 423 F. App’x 462, 465–66 (5th Cir. 2011).

19. Here, pursuant to the Master Agreement and Order Form, Compute North was to provide colocation services, energy for the Mining Equipment and other services in exchange for BitNile's payment of the Deposit and the monthly fees set forth in the Master Agreement. However, Compute North has failed to energize BitNile's Mining Equipment at the Wolf Hollow Facility and is, therefore, in default under the Master Agreement.

20. As a result of Compute North's default, BitNile has been denied the use of its Mining Equipment, and has been unable to deploy and monetize the Mining Equipment in the ordinary course of its business. BitNile has thus lost and is continuing to lose/will continue to lose revenue due to Compute North's failure to perform its obligations under the Master Agreement and Order Form.

21. Therefore, any cure amount associated with the assumption of the Master Agreement must include the pecuniary loss suffered by BitNile through the date of assumption. Anything less fails to ensure that upon assumption of the Master Agreement, BitNile will have received the full benefit of its bargain. See In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 85 F.3d 992, 999 (2d Cir. 1996) (quoting In re Superior Toy & Mfg. Co., 78 F.3d 1169, 1174 (7th Cir. 1996)).

A. Cure Amount

22. The below chart summarizes the Deposit and cure amount due and owing to BitNile:

Item	Amount	Notes
Deposit Paid	$2,012,088.00
Lost Revenue	$660,000.00	From October 1st through November 3, 2022 (per diem rate of $20,000 continuing through and including the date of cure payment; losses fluctuate based on price of Bitcoin and similar factors)
Storage Fees	$22,481.70
Shipping Costs	$90,405.00
Total	2,784,974.70

B. Protection of the Deposit and Setoff and Recoupment Rights

23. In the event that Compute North assumes and assigns the Master Agreement to Generate, not only must the cure amount be paid, but the Deposit that BitNile paid must be honored and preserved by Generate and applied against future monthly fees consistent with the terms of the Master Agreement. See Bennu Oil & Gas, LLC v. Bluewater Indus., L.P. (In re ATP Oil & Gas Corp.), 517 B.R. 756, 759 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2014) (finding that a “debtor may not pick and choose those portions that it wishes” to assume or reject). Likewise, upon assumption and assignment, BitNile is entitled to its continued legal rights of setoff or recoupment for its Deposit and other items under the Master Agreement. See 11 U.S.C. § 553; see also Enron Corp. v. Springfield Assocs., L.L.C. (In re Enron Corp.), 379 B.R. 425, 435 n. 55 (S.D.N.Y. 2007) (“[I]t is a fundamental rule of the law of contract that the assignee stands in the shoes of the assignor, possessing the same rights and remaining subject to the same defenses as the assignor.”).

C. No Adequate Assurance of Future Performance

24. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 365(b), the Debtors and Generate must establish and provide adequate assurance of Generate’s ability to not only pay the above cure amount but also to perform in the future. In determining whether there is adequate assurance of future performance, courts must look to “factual conditions, including consideration of whether the debtor’s financial data indicated its ability to generate an income stream sufficient to meet its obligations, the general economic outlook in the debtor’s industry, and the presence of a guarantee.” Lifemark Hospitals, Inc. v. Liljeberg Enters., Inc. (In re Liljeberg Enters., Inc.), 304 F.3d 410, 439-439 (5th Cir. 2002).

25. Among other things, the Master Agreement requires Generate to perform the Master Agreement’s most basic terms, which include but are not limited to:

- (i) provide Services for Mining Equipment at a facility with electricity and network connectivity (Master Agreement at 2.1)(emphasis added);
- (ii) provide BitNile with access to its customer portal (Master Agreement at 2.2); and
- (iii) provide a minimum of 100 mbps of local connectivity for all Mining Equipment on a single Ethernet segment. (Master Agreement at 7.1).

26. To date, BitNile has not received any information or assurances, let alone assurances that are “adequate,” evidencing (a) Generate’s ability to operate the business and “energize” BitNile’s 6,572 machines at the Wolf Hollow Facility, (b) Generate’s ability to perform under the Master Agreement or the Order Form, or (c) sufficient financial wherewithal regarding the operation of the business and making required future payments. Sufficient time will be needed to review such information once received.

Reservation of Rights

27. BitNile hereby reserves all rights under the Master Agreement, the Order Form, and applicable law, including the right of set off or recoupment as against any assignee. BitNile expressly reserves all rights to amend, modify, or supplement this Objection, and to object to alleged evidence of adequate assurance of future performance by Generate, once provided.

WHEREFORE, BitNile respectfully requests that the Court (i) condition assumption of the Master Agreement on the immediate payment in full of all amounts necessary to cure the Debtors’ default under the Master Agreement, including any losses suffered by BitNile as a result of the Debtors’ default, (ii) require compliance with all obligations under the Master Agreement and Order Form, (iii) require that Generate honor the Deposit paid to the Debtors in connection with the Master Agreement and that any and all rights of setoff and recoupment are preserved by BitNile, and (iv) grant BitNile such other relief as may be just and proper.

Understand the terms used in this form

Administrative expense: Generally, an expense that arises after a bankruptcy case is filed in connection with operating, liquidating, or distributing the bankruptcy estate. 11 U.S.C. § 503.

Claim: A creditor's right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. Use the debtor's name and case number as shown in the bankruptcy notice you received. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (13).

Evidence of perfection: Evidence of perfection of a security interest may include documents showing that a security interest has been filed or recorded, such as a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, or financing statement.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Priority claim: A claim within a category of unsecured claims that is entitled to priority under 11 U.S.C. §507(a). These claims are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims are paid. Common priority unsecured claims include alimony, child support, taxes, and certain unpaid wages.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the amount of debt the debtor owed to a creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Secured claim under 11 U.S.C. §506(a): A claim backed by a lien on particular property of the debtor. A claim is secured to the extent that a creditor has the right to be paid from the property before other creditors are paid. The amount of a secured claim usually cannot be more than the value of the particular property on which the creditor has a lien. Any amount owed to a creditor that is more than the value of the property normally may be an unsecured claim. But exceptions exist; for example, see 11 U.S.C. § 1322(b) and the final sentence of 1325(a).

Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment may be a lien.

Setoff: Occurs when a creditor pays itself with money belonging to the debtor that it is holding, or by canceling a debt it owes to the debtor.

Uniform claim identifier: An optional 24-character identifier that some creditors use to facilitate electronic payment.

Unsecured claim: A claim that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be unsecured in part to the extent that the amount of the claim is more than the value of the property on which a creditor has a lien.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.

Do not file these instructions with your form.

ATTACHMENT TO PROOF OF REJECTION CLAIM OF BITNILE, INC.

The following is a summary of the unsecured claim held by BitNile, Inc. (“BitNile”) against debtor Compute North LLC (“Debtor” or “Compute North”). BitNile reserves the right to amend and/or supplement the Proof of Claim and this attachment thereto (collectively, this “Proof of Claim”) in all respects. Upon information and belief, the relevant documents setting forth BitNile’s claim are already in the possession of the Debtor. Copies of these documents will be made available to the Court upon request.

BitNile is a leading cryptocurrency miner. BitNile and Compute North are parties to that certain Master Agreement, dated August 15, 2022 (the “Master Agreement”), pursuant to which Compute North was to provide colocation and other services for BitNile’s cryptocurrency mining hardware (the “Mining Equipment”). BitNile’s Mining Equipment—with a value in excess of $40 million—is its own property and is not property of the estate: the Debtors may neither use, sell nor lease the Mining Equipment under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise.

Upon entry into the Master Agreement, BitNile and Compute North executed an Order Form (the “Order Form”)¹ pursuant to which (a) BitNile delivered approximately 6,572 miners to Compute North, to be located in the Wolf Hollow Facility in Granbury, Texas (the “Wolf Hollow Facility”), which facility is owned by non-debtor CN Borrower, LLC (“CN Borrower”) and (b) Compute North was to install those miners and provide, among other things, electricity and network connectivity necessary to operate those miners.

On August 22, 2022, BitNile paid an initial deposit in the amount of $2,012,088.00 (the “Deposit”) to Compute North. At the time the Deposit was made, BitNile was assured that its Mining Equipment would be ready for use and energized. As stated below, however, the Debtors made material misrepresentations to BitNile about their financial condition and their abilities to operate and energize the facility.

BitNile believes it was defrauded in connection with the execution of the Master Agreement and the inducement to make the Deposit. Indeed, just weeks after the Deposit was made, this chapter 11 case was commenced and BitNile was never able to energize the Mining Equipment located at the Wolf Hollow facility.

On September 22, 2022, the Debtors, including Compute North, each filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code in this Court. On January 27, 2023, this Court entered an Order rejecting certain contracts (the “Rejection Order”), including the Master Agreement and Order Form, and permitting BitNile thirty (30) days to submit proofs of claim based on those rejected contracts. (Dkt. No. 871.) This claim is for rejection damages filed in accordance with the Rejection Order.

Prior to entry of the Rejection Order, Compute North failed to perform its obligations under the Master Agreement and the Order Form. The Mining Equipment was never energized or “powered on” notwithstanding assurances from Compute North to the contrary. To date, BitNile has still not received back its miners and is in process of doing so with the purchaser of the Wolf Hollow facility. Included in this claim are costs and damages resulting for the forgoing.

BitNile has suffered, and continues to suffer, mounting daily damages due to Compute North's non-performance and breaches of the Master Agreement and Order Form and BitNile's inability to utilize its Mining Equipment at the Wolf Hollow Facility or otherwise.

As of the date of this Proof of Claim, the Debtor is indebted to BitNile in the following amounts:

Category	Amount
Deposit paid	$2,012,088.00
Storage fees incurred to-date	$22,481.70
Estimated additional storage fees expected to be incurred through May 2023 ²	$20,000.00

² BitNile includes expenses, costs, and lost revenue through June 2023, as BitNile hopes to a secure an alternate site for its Mining Equipment to be powered on by July 1, 2023. BitNile reserves the right to supplement its claimed damages to the extent that BitNile is unable to secure an alternate site for the Mining Equipment to be powered on by July 1, 2023, and/or the Debtors damage or fail to release to BitNile any of the Mining Equipment.

³ BitNile is awaiting an estimate of these costs from US Bitcoin Corp. as operator of the Wolf Hollow Facility.

Estimated cover damages (for the period July 1, 2023 through September 30, 2027) ⁵	$18,625,454.40

This Proof of Claim is filed with a full reservation of rights, including the right to amend and/or supplement this Proof of Claim in all respects, including to assert additional, supplementary, and/or amended proofs of claim based on events, information, and/or documents obtained through discovery or otherwise. In addition, BitNile reserves any rights of setoff and/or recoupment it may have in connection with the claim asserted in this Proof of Claim. The filing of this Proof of Claim is not intended and should not be construed to be an election of remedies, waiver of any past, present, or future defaults or events of default, or a limitation of any rights, remedies, claims, or defenses of BitNile, including any arbitration rights BitNile may have.

BitNile also reserves the right to amend this Proof of Claim to assert additional amounts, including, without limitation, professional fees that BitNile has incurred in connection with the filing of this Proof of Claim.

 - 2.4. Transfer of Mining Equipment. Customer shall promptly notify Compute North if it transfers legal title or grants to any third-party rights in or to any Equipment to a third party. All such transfers shall be subject to and shall preserve Compute North's security interest under Section 6. In the event of a transfer, Customer shall remain obligated to pay Compute North the Monthly Service Fees for the transferred Mining Equipment for the remainder of the Equipment Term applicable to such Mining Equipment unless and until such Mining Equipment is placed into service under, and is subject to, a colocation agreement between the acquiring third party and Compute North, which shall require Compute North's approval (including satisfaction of Compute North's credit and know-your-customer requirements).
 - 2.5. Transfer of Services. Customer may not sublicense, assign, delegate or otherwise transfer its receipt of Services under this Agreement to a third party without Compute North's written consent in its sole discretion. Legal title to the Acquired Equipment only shall transfer to Customer when the fee for the Acquired Hardware has been paid to Compute North in full. The Acquired Hardware shall be Mining Equipment subject to this Agreement upon its delivery to the Facility. 4. Term and Termination.

The Parties agree that the damages sustained by Compute North in connection with the termination of this Agreement may be difficult or impossible to determine, or that obtaining an adequate remedy would be unreasonably time consuming or expensive and otherwise inconvenient, and therefore agree that in the event of such termination, the liquidated damages are a reasonable approximation of the harm or loss, and not a penalty. If Customer fails to make any payments due under this Agreement (including, as applicable, the amounts specified in clauses (i) and (ii) above plus interest thereon, the "Default Amount"), in addition to any other rights and remedies it may have, Compute North shall have the right to (a) sell or retain possession of, (b) reconfigure for Compute North's use, or (c) remove and store at Customer's expense, all or any portion of the Mining Equipment without any cost, obligation or liability of Compute North to Customer; provided, that the net proceeds received by Compute North in exercise of its remedies under clauses (a) and (b) may not exceed the aggregate Default Amount for this Agreement or Order Form(s), as applicable.

In the event of a conflict between the terms and conditions of this Master Agreement and an Order Form, the specific terms and conditions of the Order Form shall take precedence. Customer acknowledges and agrees that it has not, and will not, rely upon any representations, understandings, or other agreements not specifically set forth in this Agreement. This Agreement shall not be superseded, terminated, modified, or amended except by express written agreement of the parties that specifically identifies this Agreement.
- 13.3. Waiver, Severability. The waiver of any breach or default does not constitute the waiver of any subsequent breach or default. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be illegal or unenforceable, it shall be deemed amended to conform to the applicable Law, or, if it cannot be so amended without materially altering the intention of the parties, it shall be stricken and the remainder of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect.
- 13.4. Assignment. Except as part of or in connection with a Change of Control or a reorganization solely among Customer and its Affiliates, Customer shall not assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights, or delegate or otherwise transfer any of its obligations or performance under this Agreement, in each case whether voluntarily, involuntarily, by operation of law, or otherwise, without Compute North's written consent. "Change of Control" means (i) a sale by Customer of all or substantially all of its assets that are the subject of this Agreement to an unaffiliated person or entity, (ii) a merger, reorganization, conversion or other transaction in which more than fifty percent (50%) of the voting control of Customer is held by persons or entities who did not hold voting control of such party, whether directly or indirectly, immediately prior to such transaction (excluding any reorganization solely among Customer and any entities that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with Customer (each, an "Affiliate"), or (iii) a sale by the equity holders of Customer that results in more than fifty percent (50%) of the voting control of such party being held by persons or entities who did not hold voting control of Customer, whether directly or indirectly, immediately prior to such sale (excluding any reorganization solely among Customer and its Affiliates). Customer shall notify Compute North in writing within ten (10) days of any assignment or transfer under this Section 13.4. No force majeure shall relieve, suspend, or otherwise cause either Party from performing any obligation to indemnify, reimburse, hold harmless or otherwise pay the other Party under this Agreement, including Customer's obligation to pay any Fees. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Force Majeure includes an increase of ten percent (10%) or more in Compute North's variable operating costs.
- 13.6. Compliance with Laws. Customer's use of the Facility and the Equipment located at the Facility shall conform to all applicable Law, including international Law, the Law of the jurisdictions in which Customer is doing business and where the Facility is located. Customer shall timely cooperate in any audit or review of Customer's compliance with the terms hereof conducted by or on behalf of Compute North, responding accurately and completely to all inquiries, and providing any requested documents.
- 13.7. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the Laws of the State of New York, excluding any conflicts of law rule or principle which might refer such construction to the laws of another state or country. The parties waive, to the fullest extent permitted by Law, any objection that they may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any such action or proceeding in such courts and any claim that any such action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY THAT MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES AND, THEREFORE, EACH SUCH PARTY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LEGAL ACTION ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.
